

INDIVIDUAL PROPERTY/DISTRICT
MARYLAND HISTORICAL TRUST
INTERNAL NR-ELIGIBILITY REVIEW FORM

Property/District Name: Buildings at Kingsview Village Subdivision Survey Number: M-19-16

Project: Kingsview Village Subdivision Agency: COE

Site visit by MHT Staff: no yes Name _____ Date _____

Eligibility recommended _____ Eligibility not recommended

Criteria: A B C D Considerations: A B C D E F G None

Justification for decision: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map)

Based on the available information, the property, located on MD 118 just south of Old Germantown, is not eligible for the National Register of Historic Places. Three inventoried properties once stood on the tract: Richter/King House (M 19-16), Snyder/King Barn #1 (M 19-3), and Snyder/King Barn #2 (M 19-24). None of these structures remains standing. The remaining standing structures, which were not inventoried, include a concrete block storage barn with grain silos, two small frame sheds, and a brick foundation. These structures appear to date to the twentieth century, are in deteriorated condition and do not possess any known architectural or historical significance. The site is located south of and adjacent to Old Germantown (M 19-17). Few physical remains of the community remain and, according to the inventory form, it was not eligible at the time of inventorying.

Documentation on the property/district is presented in: Project file, Inventory forms
M 19-16, M 19-18, M 19-24 and M 19-17-1

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The house is a two story structure, the original main part of which is log. The original main (east) facade is three bays with a central doorway; there are transom and sidelights and the door has heavy Italianate mouldings. The central gable is shingled and has a round window.

The present facade faces west, with a bay window and porch with bracketed posts.

West of the house is a frame bankbarn with horizontal siding. The window openings are louvered and have a pediment motif over the window heads.

Prepare both a summary paragraph of significance and a general statement of history and support.

The Richter/King house is a rural vernacular farmhouse built in two parts. The first section of the house was built in the late 1850's but since the addition of the second section, circa 1900, the house has a late victorian look. This is due in particular to the addition of an ornately decorated jig-sawn trim porch built on with the new addition.

Also interesting to the history of the house is an event that took place in 1865. George Atzerodt, one of the conspirators in the Lincoln assination, fled to this farm, then owned by his uncle, Hyman Richter, following the shooting of the president.¹ However, Union soldiers captured him here and he was later hung.

The original section of the house, two large rooms downstairs and up with a center hall, was built by Hyman Richter in the late 1850's (this is the section which faces Rt. 118).² The Richters were farmers and among the early settlers to this area. The house remained in the Richter family for many years. Their farm included approximately 143 1/2 acres of the "Final Conclusion" tract. Ernest Hartman Richter, who lived here with his wife, Mary, and their children, built on the second section of the house with the porch about 1900 (this is the section that faces Schaeffer Rd.).³

Ernest died in 1920 followed by his wife, Mary in 1931. The farm then became the property of their children and grandchildren. There was, however, no one in the family in the position to farm the land and it could not be rented profitably. In addition, there were too many heirs to divide the farm among them. Thus the property was sold in June of 1934 to the present owner, Herbert C. King.⁴ Unfortunately, the house was the scene of a fire on January 29, 1982 during which the house was badly damaged.⁵
