Darnestown Presbyterian Church & Cemetery
15120 Turkey Foot Road
(formerly 13800 Darnestown Road)
Darnestown

Begun as a rural, vernacular, frame building in 1856, the church is surrounded by old pines and maples. The church parlor and bell tower, added in 1897, impart a Gothic feeling to the present structure. Added at the same time were a beautiful stained-glass memorial window, and the stone wall, which runs the length of the church's frontage along Darnestown Road (MD 28). A rear addition was built in the 1950s, and renovations were made to the interior. In the back of the church the original gallery for blacks remains. A cemetery to the rear of the church property contains gravestones of many of the early residents of Darnestown.

Prior to the construction of this church, there had been a worshiping group of Presbyterians in the Darnestown area. This small group shared the little log church at Pleasant Hills, at the present-day intersection of Darnestown and Germantown Roads, with Methodists, Baptists, and Episcopalians. In 1856, the Presbyterians decided to establish their own church at Darnestown.

The Montgomery County Historic Preservation Commission reviewed the architectural and historic significance of these resources according to the criteria listed in the Historic Preservation Ordinance, Chapter 24A of the Montgomery County Code, and nominated one through six for placement on the Master Plan for Historic Preservation. If placed on the Master Plan, the historic resource will be protected under the Historic Preservation Ordinance which provides certain controls regarding alteration, demolition, and maintenance of the property.

The Historic Preservation Commission found Darnestown Atlas historic district did not meet Ordinance criteria for placement and recommends its removal from the Locational Atlas. If not included in the Master Plan for Historic Preservation, any of the resources listed above may be removed from the Locational Atlas. If removed, the sites would no longer be subject to the provision of Chapter 24A-10, the Moratorium on Alteration and Demolition. All sites will remain on the Maryland Historical Trust's Inventory.
