DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a small, rural community that evolved in the late-19th Century. It is centered at the intersection of Glen and Travilah Roads. The two most notable buildings sit opposite each other on Glen Rd. On the north side is the Travilah Baptist Church, built in 1894. It is a small frame building, three bays in length. The entrance is on the (south) gable facade, via a small, one-bay vestibule that sits on brick piers. The main building rests on a fieldstone foundation. It has a steep gable roof, with a plain cornice and fascia board. A small belfry sits atop the south gable-end. Windows are tall, 6/6 panes. Present siding is asbestos shingle.

Across the street is a large, two-story frame structure, covered with stucco. The entrance is via a double door in the (north) gable facade. Windows and trim are similar to those at the church. It appears to have been a school or store, but older residents remember it as a "Town Hall" or local meeting place only. The one-room school stood to the NE, on Travilah Rd. It burned years after it was closed in 1942. Also removed within recent years is the old store that stood on the SW corner. Even the old, glass gas pumps have now disappeared.

In addition, there are two, ca. 1900, farm-type houses here. One sits on the NE corner, and the other just beyond the SW corner on Travilah Rd. The latter was built in a two-bay, east-west section, and is joined to a north-south, three-bay part by a low, two-story hyphen.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This entire area has always been quite isolated from the main commercial areas of the County. The only sign of a community here in 1865 was a school. Later (in 1882), a store was opened and the Baptist Church and "Town Hall" added. Obviously, there was a need for some community facilities and these buildings coincided with the important era of growth in this vicinity (late-19th Cen.) Reportedly, this area was named after Mr. Travilah Peter.
