Property Name: Tobacco Barn
Survey No.: PG: 85A-3 (PACS B91)

Property Address Branch Avenue and Burch Hill Road, Tee Bee vicinity, Prince George's County
Owner Name/Address Edward Marson and M. John Desoto, 11811 Branch Avenue, Brandywine, Maryland 20613
Year Built circa 1875

Description:

The Tobacco Barn at the junction of Branch Avenue and Burch Hill Road was previously surveyed by the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission in August 1974. Since the time of the previous survey, the house mentioned in the survey form has been demolished.

National Register Evaluation:

Constructed circa 1875, the Tobacco Barn at the junction of Branch Avenue and Burch Hill Road is not eligible for the National Register of Historic Places. The property is not eligible under Criterion A, as research conducted indicates no association with any historic events or trends significant in the development of national, state or local history. Historic research indicates that the property has no association with persons who have made specific contributions to history, and therefore, it does not meet Criterion B. It is not eligible under Criterion C, as the barn is of a type common in the area and has lost much of its historic materials through deterioration and replacement. Finally, the structure has no known potential to yield important information, and therefore, is not eligible under Criterion D.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The barn, with its painted roof-top message for Spring Lake restaurant, has been a Southern Md. landmark along busy Rt. 5 for years. The ad refers to a well-known place over the Charles Co. line, that was was the first stop during the mid 20th Century slot-machine era.

The house and barn might have belonged to Dr. Joseph H. Blandford during the late 1800's.
