This house is located on the north side of Lehman's Mill Road, about one half mile west of Miller's Church Road west of Leitersburg in Washington County, Maryland. It is situated on level ground and faces south.

The dwelling is a two story, two bay log structure sheathed with aluminum siding. Modern leanto additions of concrete block are attached to the front and rear elevations.

One visible early feature of this house is its exterior chimney. At the first story level it is a massive stone structure while its upper portion is of brick.

The house appears to be in excellent condition and stands on a tract containing 9.7 acres which is part of a large land grant, the "Resurvey on Poe's Part of Well Taught."

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This small log dwelling sheathed with aluminum siding is typical of many such structures dating from the 19th century in Western Maryland. Although the exact building date of this house is not known, it is designated on a map of the Leitersburg election district published in the 1877 Washington County Atlas. At that time it was owned by a Casper Lindeman. The house does not appear, however, on an 1859 map of Washington County. Washington County land records show that the property was owned by Michael Seiders from 1863 until his death which occurred about 1883.
