Description:

Located at the southeast corner of West Cemetery Street and West Side Avenue is this two story, three bay stuccoed log house. Windows have two over two pane sash within flat architraves. The main entrance is in the central bay. Across the front is a porch with arched spandrels, giving an arcaded affect. Attached to the south end is a one story kitchen extension.

The 1877 Atlas shows a building on this property, but does not list the owner.
