Description:

This Italianate influenced house is a two story, three bay frame structure covered with vinyl siding. The main character-defining feature is the bracketed cornice across the front and the shed roof. Windows have been modified to have single pane sash. There is no window in the central bay of the front elevation. The main entrance is in the central bay. A shed roofed porch extends across the front.

This property is located on the 1877 Atlas map of Funkstown under the ownership of T. McCoy.
