Description:

This house is a two story, four bay veneered log structure covered with brick at the first story. The second story is aluminum sided with only three bays and may be an addition. The fenestration pattern has changed with the addition of a double window in the third bay. Other windows have single pane sash. Entrances are located in the second and fourth bays.

According to the 1877 Atlas, this was the home of D. South in that year.
