Woodley is located at the end of a private lane which extends in an easterly direction from Md. Rt. 65 just south of Md. Rt. 68 in Washington County.

The main house is a multi part log structure sheathed with stucco. A frame two story addition extends to the south.

Interior and exterior finishings that appear to be original are associated with work of the 1840's period in Washington County.

Other buildings in the complex include a German sided log tenant house and a frame bank barn.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Woodley is significant as an example of a 19th century complex, probably dating from the 1840's. Part of Frisby Tilghman's estate, the property was acquired by a Dr. Maddox about 1845. It is said to have been used as a hospital after the Battle of Antietam.

Tilghman, Maddox and Williams families who owned Woodley respectively are prominent in 19th century Washington County.
