

WA-II-489 Yellow House Liquors

Late 19th century

Benevola Vicinity

Private

The commercial building is a two-story, three-bay by four-bay structure covered in modern yellow siding. The roof line and windows of the structure give the appearance of an earlier building that has had substantial exterior renovation. The exterior renovations made its current commercial use include a modern iron and concrete second story balcony, a brick veneer facade on the first story and on a north wing, two large picture windows and a modern entrance way.
