OWNER/LOT NUMBER/ACCESS: Methodist Episcopal Church, no lot number

BUILDING DATE: mid-late 19th century

This is a south-facing, vertically massed, symmetrical, one-by-two-bay, one-and-a-half-story, frame, freestanding, ecclesiastical structure on a stone foundation. Set directly at the public-right-of-way, the building is sheathed in manufactured shingles. It has a corrugated metal, front-gable roof. The entrance is located facing the street. It has a recessed, four-panel door with an enclosed transom. Windows on the east and west elevation are set in wood frames and are double-hung, six-over-six sash. There is an old cemetery with a large shade tree behind the church.

The church, which is now open once a year for worship, had a traditionally black congregation. It is noted on the 1922 Sanborn as the "M.E. Chapel". It was heated by a stove and had electrical lighting. A building, noted as the "Colored Church" is shown on the 1877 map of the town.

The building is within the Western Maryland Geographic Organization, the Development Period of Agricultural-Industrial Transition, and falls within the Historic Period Themes of Religion; and Architecture, Landscape Architecture and Community Planning.
