DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This farmhouse is a two story, five bay structure with German siding, and L-shaped, frame farm house dating from Ca. 1900. It has standard turn of the century architectural elements including singel pane window sashes, flat topped architraves, louvered shutters and a front porch with restrained gingerbread. The central entrance has a single pane transom. The only major alteration appears to have been the application of a modern asphalt roof.
