DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This two story with attic, three bay, log residence is situated on the north side of West Potomac Street facing south. It has a standing seam tin roof, horizontal German siding, two over two double hung sash and a door in the western position of the south facade. The shallow hip roof and front porch extend across the front. The wood trim elements suggest that it was remodeled on the exterior early in the 20th century. However, the log shell is at least of 19th century construction.
