Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This structure is a mobile home unit that is one story high and has a curved roof. It is 2 bays deep with a protruding central section on the facade, the entire building rests upon brick and concrete block wall foundations. The unit's windows are metal casements surrounded by some metal louvered shutters and two doors are hollow wood which are accessible via cast iron step platforms accompanied with iron handrailings. The central addition has 5 walls with lots of glass and metal panes, a slightly pitched roof with overhangs encompasses the entire central section.

Also located on the site is another mobile home unit which houses the wholesale automobile department office. This structure is one story with a curved roof and is 6 bays wide and covered with metal sheathing. The unit sits atop concrete block piers, hidden by lathe strips on the facade at ground level. There are two hollow wood doors on the facade, each with metal step thresholds and iron handrailings.

The remaining space is allotted to the parking space needs of the Lustine Used Car Sales.
