This late nineteenth century two-story framed and weatherboarded dwelling faces north onto 4th Street. The gable roof is covered with standing-seam sheet metal. There is an added brick chimney on the exterior of the west gable end. The three-bay facade with side entrance is lengthened to the west by a fourth bay incorporated into a polygonal gable-end projection. The original section of the house probably has a two-room plan. There is a two-story framed and weatherboarded ell and a one-story shed addition. The facade is sheltered by a hipped-roof, screened-in porch supported by tapering Doric columns.
