Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This gable-fronted framed and weatherboarded house faces east onto Sedwick Street. Built in the early twentieth century, it has a three-bay facade with a side entrance and is three bays long. The windows are glazed with three-over-one double-hung sash. The upper half story is lighted by pairs of windows in the gable ends. A hipped-roof screened-in porch shelters the entire facade. There is a one-story, one-bay rear extension.
