Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This one-story two-room framed and tarpapered dwelling faces west onto the Patuxent River. Its lot fronts onto Patuxent Avenue. Set on wood and concrete piers, this little structure has a gable roof, six-over-six double-hung-sash windows, and a metal stove flue. There is a two-bay-long rear ell. A hipped-roof screened-in front porch obscures the facade, which is probably three bays wide. This structure dates from the early part of this century.
