Priest Manor House It was recently used as a barn. Also on the grounds is the site of a tobacco barn. Believed to have served as a priest's residence, this small 1½-story frame house was typical of the architecture of this region from the first half of the 18th century up to the end of the first quarter of the 19th. It was three bays in length and had two exterior chimneys, each with one stepped weathering. At one end stood a detached kitchen with an exterior chimney, later connected to the house by a one-story hyphen.

BLACKSTONE HOUSE, OF LONGWORTH POINT,* was built about 1684 by the Gardiners. It was the home of Nehemiah Blackstone when he was President of the Council in 1690. The main stair in the central Hallway rises on one side, but returns from the landing in the center instead of against the other wall.

Capt. Somerville of MULBERRY FIELDS, whose Hallway is shown here, owned also "Sotterly" in St. Mary's County, and "Stratford", the great Lee homestead of Virginia. The partitions in this Hallway are two inches thick, and the arch and newel are like those of the "Old House on West St. Mary's Manor".

The PRIEST MANOR HOUSE is near "Cross Manor" and has the same type of twin chimneys. The Kitchen was a separate building at one time. This is not an authentic manor-house. It is named "manor" after the "St. Inigoe's Manor" on which it stands.
