DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This one story, gable roofed, brick church has a four-sided bell tower on the northwest corner of the front. Adjoining the church on the west side is a two story modern addition, used as the parish house. The church, although built sometime in the 20th century, contains Gothic Revival elements, such as the large pointed arched stained glass window on the front with wood tracery, and the front door under a pointed arch with stained glass in the arch. On the front of the bell tower is a circular opening and on each side is a series of three trefoil shaped openings. The flat roofed parish house has three bays on the front. The wood door is arched and all of the windows are rectangular except one small octagonal window opposite the door.
