Janes M.E. Church
Chestertown, Maryland

The Church sits in the center of Chestertown's historic district at the crossing of Chestertown's second major commercial artery, Cross Street, with Cannon Street, the major residential road of two historically-black neighborhoods. From the point of view of Urban Design, the Church punctuates its important corner site and balances the 1908 fire hall tower diagonally across the street and midway up the block. The Church is the prominent and only representative of black culture in Chestertown's downtown, National Register District.

This is to certify that the improvements indicated herein are located as shown.
