The Mason House, located at 407 Lincoln Street, Denton, Caroline County, MD is not located in an historic district nor is it considered eligible for individual listing on the National Register of Historic Places.

The Mason House is a 2-1/2 story front gable house built in 1900-1930. The frame structure has two attachments, a 2-1/2 story rear addition also with a gable roof and a shed roof porch held up by wrought iron columns.

The dwelling is typical of the domestic architecture of the period and lacks the architectural distinctiveness to qualify for listing on the National Register of Historic Places under Criterion C. The property is not known to have any associations with persons or events significant to our past and is thus not eligible under Criteria A or B.

Documentation on the property/district is presented in: Review & Compliance Files
