Description:

The Jackson Yang Property I is a 1½-story, 3-bay front-gable cottage on the south side of Sandy Spring Road in the Burtonsville vicinity, Montgomery County. Constructed circa 1930, the building is rectangular in plan with a front-gable roof, a shed dormer on the east side and an exterior brick chimney on the rear.

The structure has a front-gabled roof, covered with asphalt shingles. It is of wood frame construction with vinyl siding, and it has a stuccoed foundation. The windows are double-hung vinyl sash. The house has a front-gabled porch on the front, or north elevation. The porch has three doric columns and a square railing supported by a stuccoed concrete block foundation with wood flooring. All of the porch materials are a modern replacement.

Also on this parcel is the Jackson Yang Property II. It is a 1-story, 3-bay front-gable cottage on the south side of Sandy Spring Road in the Burtonsville vicinity, Montgomery County. Constructed circa 1930, the building is rectangular in plan and is located on a steeply sloping lot, allowing for a fully exposed basement on the south elevation.

The structure has a front-gable roof, covered with asphalt shingles and a central brick chimney. It is of wood frame construction with vinyl siding, and it has a molded concrete block foundation. The windows are double-hung vinyl sash. The house has a 1-story, gable porch on the west, or front elevation. The porch has 3 doric columns and a simple square railing resting on a concrete wall with wood flooring. All of the porch materials are a modern replacement.

There are no outbuildings associated with these buildings.

The property is located on the south side of Sandy Spring Road, with commercial property on all sides of the houses. There is a large parking lot located between the two buildings and forested land behind the structures. The property is altered from its historic setting by the addition of the parking lot.
