The Strong Property is located on the north side of Burtons Lane in the Forestville vicinity of Prince George's County. The property occupies a sloping wooded lot in an industrial area immediately east of the Capital Beltway. The circa 1940 house on the Strong Property is 1 1/2-stories tall and 4-bays wide. It has a brick foundation, vinyl weatherboard siding and an asphalt-shingle, side-gable roof. The roof has two projecting front-gables on the front (south) elevation and a shed wall dormer on the rear (north) elevation. A brick chimney is located in the west gable end. The main entry is located in the second bay from the west on the front elevation. The modern door has a plain surround. Most of the modern, 6/6 windows occur in pairs. A large modern deck extends from the front elevation, while a small, hipped-roof addition extends from the east. A wood-frame garage with a front-gable roof is located northwest of the house. The property is currently used by a trucking operation.

Property Name: Strong Property

Inventory Number: PG: 78-32

Description of Property and Eligibility Determination: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map and photo) (CONT'D.)

The Strong Property is not eligible for the National Register of Historic Places. The property is not eligible under Criterion A, as research conducted indicates no association with any historic events or trends significant in the development of local, state or national history. Historic research indicates that the property has no association with persons who have made specific contributions to history, and therefore, it does not meet Criterion B. The property is not eligible under Criterion C, as it is an indistinguished example of a common building type found throughout suburban regions. In addition, the architectural integrity of the building is compromised by the modern siding, windows and deck. Investigations have not yet been conducted to determine whether the property has the potential to yield information important in history or pre-history, therefore, eligibility under Criterion D cannot be assessed at this time.
