The Nolan Property, constructed in 1940, is a 1-story, 3-bay, front-gable residence located at the southeast corner of Campground Road and Simpson Avenue. The house lacks architectural significance. The building is of wood-frame construction with a concrete block foundation, asbestos shingle siding, and an asphalt shingle roof. The windows are wood 1/1 double-hung sash with decorative shutters. A brick central chimney projects from the ridgeline of the roof. The front, or west, elevation of the house has an off-center, front gabled porch with wooden posts, asbestos-shingled knee walls, and a projecting aluminum awning on the north, south, and west elevations. At the rear of the house, the grade recedes to provide access to a basement-level garage with a wood-paneled overhead door. The remainder of the rear elevation is occupied by a wood-frame screen porch addition with a shed roof and a hipped overhang. A metal-frame, gambrel-roof carport with aluminum sheathing on the north, east, and south elevations, is located to the east of the residence.

NR-ELIBILITY REVIEW FORM

Continuation Sheet No. 1

The Nolan Property is not eligible for the National Register of Historic Places due to a lack of architectural significance. This property does not represent a historic event or trend that made a significant contribution to the development of the nation, state, or local community, and therefore is not eligible under Criterion A. Historic research also indicates that the property has no association with persons who have made specific contributions to history, and therefore, it does not meet Criterion B. The Nolan Property is an indistinctive example of a common building type found throughout suburban areas and is therefore ineligible under Criterion C. Finally, investigations have not been conducted to determine whether the property has the potential to yield information important in history or pre-history, therefore, National Register Criterion D cannot be evaluated at this time.
