Dear Judge Eschenburg:

Pursuant to our conversation of October 31, 2006, we will begin implementation of the Family Dependency Court, hopefully, sometime in February, 2007. As discussed, this court will be set on for the first and third Monday of each month similar to Juvenile Drug Court, in that staffing will begin at 2:00 p.m. and court at 3:00 p.m. Both Master Kent and I will be in attendance at these sessions so that in the event either of us is unable to attend there will be back up coverage by a judge/master. I have informed the Clerk's Office of this schedule today by a copy of this letter.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me.

Very truly yours,

1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 MR. HUDSON: Good morning, everybody.

3 As you know, I'm Bill Hudson, one of your members.

4 Over the last couple of years, I have had the honor

5 of serving on the Professionalism Committee for 6 which I think I can blame Cathi.

7 MS. COATES: It's always nice to have 8 somebody to blame.

9 MR. HUDSON: We've got a great turnout

10 today. I was speaking with somebody today from the 11 office of the courts who told me that they have been 12 to counties in which the showing has not been nearly 13 as good. So thank you all for coming out this 14 morning.

15 We're graced today with the presence of 16 all the members of our local bar with whom you're 17 familiar, so I won't go into that. But we're also 18 graced with the presence of Judge Battaglia today.

19 Judge Battaglia comes to us from Silver

20 Creek, New York.

21 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: A town of less than 22 3,000 people.

23 MR. HUDSON: A carpetbagger from the 24 north. She received her bachelor of arts from

25 American University, went on and obtained her

1 master's, then later pursued a doctorate in American 2 studies; however, decided that she wanted to pursue
3 law, transferred to the University of Maryland 4 School of Law where she graduated, and then moved on 5 to an adjunct professor.

6 I first had the opportunity to meet her as 7 a student there where she, as I recall, taught in 8 the clinical --

9 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Yeah, I did.

10 MR. HUDSON: -- program. She graduated
11 from law school, went to Semmes, Bowen and Semmes 12 where she practiced for several years before being 13 recruited to -- please forgive me. I thought I was 14 going to be introducing Judge Bell this morning. I 15 have the script memorized, and wasn't -- I was 16 walking in and I was introducing Judge Battaglia.

17 She was recruited to the U.S Attorney's 18 Office where she served as an Assistant U.S.
19 Attorney, specifically a senior trial attorney with 20 the Office of Special Litigation.

21 Later was recruited by the Maryland
22 Attorney General's Office where she worked as chief 23 of the Criminal Investigations Division and was 24 active in prosecution. It wasn't just an 25 administrative position because I recall her

1 appearing before Judgment Duckett in Anne Arundel
2 County while I was there.

3 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Right.

4 MR. HUDSON: She later became chief of 5 staff to Senator Barbara Mikulski, moved on to the 6 Office of the U.S. Attorney where she was the U.S.
7 Attorney for the District of Maryland for I believe 8 eight years.

9 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Yeah.

10 MR. HUDSON: Has been serving now on the 11 Maryland Court of Appeals for the last five years.

12 She has worked tirelessly in her
13 commitment to improve upon the image of the Maryland 14 Judiciary as well as the bar in the State of 15 Maryland. I'm amazed at the dedication she has 16 shown to the Professionalism Commission. My only 17 complaint is that she -- she is so passionate about 18 it that sometimes it seems as though she forgot that 19 those of us who were serving on the commission had 20 9:00 to 5:00 jobs, and we apologize if we didn't 21 live up to your expectations in that regard.

22 We certainly appreciate you coming to 23 Worcester County today. Everybody, please join me 24 in welcoming Judge Battaglia to Worcester County.

25 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Should we introduce

1 all the judges?

2 MR. HUDSON: If you would like me to.

3 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Yeah. Go ahead.

4 MR. HUDSON: Let me start on the left,
5 Judge Eschenburg. Stand?

6 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Everybody knows me.

7 MR. HUDSON: Judge Bloxom, Judge
8 Mumford, Judge Cathell, Judge Groton, Judge Purnell.
9 Anybody else?

10 JUDGE CATHELL: I especially appreciate 11 you introducing me gently as a member of the local 12 bench. I prefer that. I do, really.

13 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Well, I sit -- for the 14 last five years, I've sat next to Dale Cathell, and 15 not only has he been a wonderful mentor, but he's 16 certainly kept my days full of excitement. Normally 17 when you're sitting there and you're listening to 18 argument, it may get a little tiresome after a 19 while. But when you sit next to Dale, you never 20 know what you're going to hear him say. So I hope 21 that sometime you'll have the opportunity to come up 22 and hear some of his questions because they're very 23 good, but they're also very humorous, too.

24 JUDGE CATHELL: She's the first woman
25 that's ever accused me of making her excited during

1 the daytime.

2 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Charlotte, this is 3 your husband.

4 MS. CATHELL: He does that all the time
5 for me, 24/7.

6 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: That's great,
7 Charlotte. Thank you.

8 Well, welcome. Thank you all for coming
9 out on a Monday morning for the Professionalism 10 Commission report presentation.

11 Without further ado, I'll first introduce 12 Laura Glasgow. Laura, where are you? There you 13 are. Who is the person who put all of this together 14 and is responsible for all of the paperwork that she 15 brought down with her as well as putting together 16 the media presentation this morning. And we have 17 Norman Smith who is our reporter for the commission, 18 and he also prepares the minutes.

19 After I make the presentation, we're going 20 to facilitate, hopefully, some conversation about 21 the presentation with your suggestions, additions,
22 modifications, concerns, anything. And what happens 23 is, we provide minutes of all of these meetings to 24 the people on the commission as well as to the Court
25 of Appeals.

1 At the present time, the Court of Appeals
2 has not acted upon this report. The commission
3 intends to meet again in January and for as many 4 times as necessary to take into consideration all of 5 the suggestions that we've heard in the meetings.

6 Just to let you know, we've been very 7 active on the road. Last week we had a number of 8 meetings during the last month and a half, but last 9 week we were in Bel Air on Monday, Cumberland on 10 Tuesday, Hagerstown on Wednesday and La Plata on 11 Thursday. So we're really going around the state.
12 And tomorrow we're in Easton. So we're really 13 trying to get all the suggestions from all of the 14 attorneys throughout the state to make this even a 15 better product.

16 This whole movement began as a result of 17 the fact that in the early -- late '80s, early '90s, 18 there was a recognition that oftentimes many of the 19 bars throughout the United States needed to provide 20 professionalism courses for new admittees, and 21 Maryland took up the cogent, and basically since 22 1992, over 22,000 new admittees have been members of 23 the new admittees course on professionalism. This 24 Friday, the results come out from the bar, and how I 25 know that is, I have a son who is awaiting the

1 results as well as with my daughter-in-law. So 2 they're eagerly awaiting the results themselves.
3 And we'll have more new admittees, of course, going 4 through the professionalism course.

5 In 2000 and 2001, the Maryland State Bar
6 Association recommended that there be a course 7 similar to the new admittees course for experienced 8 attorneys because there was a sense that some 9 experienced attorneys could use a professionalism 10 course. When this recommendation was presented to 11 the Court of Appeals, we had a difference of opinion 12 as to what professionalism meant as well as whether 13 experienced attorneys would be benefitted by a 14 mandatory course on professionalism.

15 As a result, Judge Bell established the 16 Professionalism Task Force made up of an attorney 17 from each of the counties and a reporter, who is 18 Norman Smith. Cathi Coates was on the task force.
19 We had a number of town hall meetings. As you
20 recall, we had ours here from September of 2002
21 until July of 2003, and each attorney in the state
22 who was registered with the Client Security Trust 23 Fund, now the Client Protection Fund, was invited to 24 a town hall meeting in his or her county of 25 residence.

Kathy A. Zeve, RPR
Worcester County Circuit Court

1 If you remember, when you came in to that 2 town hall meeting, you were given questionnaires,
3 and those questionnaires were anonymous, asking you 4 whether -- what you thought professionalism was, 5 whether you thought there was a decline in 6 professionalism, and if so, what could be done about 7 it. The results of that questionnaire -- all the 8 questionnaires were tabulated by interns from the 9 University of Baltimore and University of Maryland
10 Law School, and the following were the task force 11 findings.

12 We found throughout the state that 13 professionalism had many meanings to the attorneys 14 throughout the state. But professionalism always 15 meant more than ethics. Ethics was recognized as 16 the minimum standard to which attorneys should 17 adhere. Professionalism meant ethics plus, and 18 particularly civility, courtesy, among others.

19 We found that throughout the state -- and 20 I laughed at that because I remember I had -- in La 21 Plata, we had a number of people in the family law 22 arena, and they agreed with this finding, that the 23 family law arena basically provides a lot of the 24 area for lack of professionalism within the legal 25 profession. Many times people felt, who were at 1 these task force meetings, that the acrimony among 2 clients led to acrimony between attorneys. And that 3 oftentimes people going into a family law arena

4 wanted to have an attorney who was a Rambo type.

5 We also found that discovery disputes
6 throughout the state provided another arena for 7 unprofessional conduct. It was interesting because 8 in the urban area, many of the people felt that it 9 was between the large firms and the solo 10 practitioners, or between large firms and small 11 firms. In the rural counties, oftentimes if it were 12 in the western part of the state, they talk about 13 Montgomery County attorneys coming in and creating 14 areas of dispute. In other rural counties, they 15 blamed Baltimore City attorneys who didn't 16 understand the nature of the practice in the more 17 rural counties.

18 We also found that judges were more 19 detached from the bar and the community than they 20 had been in the past which is obviously not true
21 here. What we also found relatively is we have a 22 higher sense of professionalism in the bar when 23 judges are involved in the Bar. We also found that 24 there was greater respect for the legal system as a 25 whole if the judges were involved in the community.

1 Interestingly enough, everyone spoke, no
2 matter where we were, about the fact the media
3 contributes to a perception of unprofessionalism 4 among attorneys. I'm reminded of the fact, and 5 although I haven't seen the program, there's a new 6 program about attorneys out called "Shark". And 7 they didn't choose the name by accident because 8 oftentimes it encourages people to really 9 participate in what they perceive to be the drama of 10 the legal profession, but they also encourage that 11 view of the legal profession by the community.

12 We also found that advertising
13 contributed, and I remember we had a discussion here
14 about advertising. We just had another conversation
15 about advertising in another one of the counties
16 where a woman gave me a flier that had on it, "Call 17 1-800-BEATDWI and 1-800-BEATCDS." So advertising 18 oftentimes encourages a perception that lawyers are 19 unprofessional.

20 We also found that technology contributed 21 to unprofessionalism. By that I mean, that 22 oftentimes people now can fax voluminous requests
23 for the production of documents and interrogatories 24 to attorneys at 4:00 on Friday afternoon. But also 25 e-mails have contributed because in the past, for

1 those of us who never mastered the art of typing, we 2 would dictate something or we would write it out in 3 long hand, and by the time we finished the letter
4 where we were venting out frustration with another 5 member of the bar, we would have said, "That's 6 enough. I don't need to send it. I'll just throw 7 it away." But now with the advent of e-mail, all 8 you have to do is hit send, and that's it. So we 9 see a lot more hostility going over cyberspace.

10 We also found that with our busy lives,
11 with our families and our practice, we have less 12 time for interaction among members of the bar. And 13 some attorneys spoke about the fact that 14 unprofessional conduct is oftentimes the result, in 15 their view, of the desperation that people have 16 because they're concerned about the practice, the 17 economics of the practice of law. Meaning that they 18 were concerned about the banking institutions and 19 other institutions as well as software companies 20 like Quicken who now can produce wills and trusts
21 and all of that which limit the amount of income 22 that an attorney can derive from the practice.

23 So there were a number of recommendations 24 that the task force made relative to all this. The 25 first one was, we need to really define what we mean

1 by professionalism.

2 The second one was, in which we'll talk 3 about, provided the greatest amount of debate at the 4 Professionalism Commission meetings which was,
5 whether there should be sanctions attached to 6 standards of professionalism.

7 There was also a concern and a
8 recommendation that we should address discovery 9 disputes, look at what mentoring opportunities are 10 out there and what can be done about that.

11 So on November 3rd of 2003, we had the 12 establishment of the Professionalism Commission to 13 take up the cogent of this task force. And again, 14 we had a member from each of the counties, a member
15 of the two law schools in Maryland, the University
16 of Baltimore and the University of Maryland, a 17 member of the Judicial Disabilities Commission, a 18 member of the Attorney Grievance Commission, and a 19 member of the Rules Commission -- Committee as well 20 as the same reporter, Norman's been there with us.

21 We broke up into eight subcommittees
22 because that's where the work of the commission 23 takes place. We view ourselves as a legislative 24 commission, so we mirrored a legislature in the 25 sense that the subcommittees did the research and

1 basically came up with recommendations relative to 2 the work, and the work was broken down into -- to 3 reflect what the recommendations were of the task 4 force.

5 We made the final report of the commission 6 in May of this year. As I said, the Court of 7 Appeals has not acted upon it. We agreed that we 8 would take this report out to the counties and have 9 meetings in the fall, and then the commission would 10 take the suggestions and fine-tune the 11 recommendations, and then present them to the Court
12 of Appeals.

13 In your hands are the hand -- the 14 typewritten standards of professionalism that were 15 developed by the subcommittee. The reason why I 16 don't go through them is because when I was at the 17 Bar Association convention and did that, I found 18 that it was really boring going through the pages
19 and pages of standards. So I thought the better 20 part of that would be to have them separate and have 21 you have them in written form so you could look at 22 them. They are the result of the efforts made by 23 that subcommittee as well as some debate about the 24 language.

25 The standards were meant to be

1 aspirational by the subcommittees, so they need to 2 be fine-tuned because of the fact that the next 3 recommendation by the standard subcommittee after 4 lengthy debate was that there should be sanctions
5 attached to the standards of professionalism to deal 6 with egregious and repeated violations of the 7 standards of professionalism. I believe that this 8 was the most hotly debated item over practically a 9 year and a half of meeting.

10 The first recommendation of the sanctions
11 subcommittee was that there be a new rule entitled 12 Maryland Rule 1-342 which, as you can see, basically 13 permits the Court, if the judge finds that counsel 14 violates the standards of professionalism, that the 15 judge may impose sanctions as the judge deems 16 appropriate, including the assessment of a monetary 17 civil penalty, a monetary award, or both.

18 In some of our presentations, people have 19 asked about the due process aspect of this, 20 "How would that be done," as well as, "What would 21 happen with the money?" The recommendation has not 22 been fine-tuned in terms of all of the due process, 23 nor where the money would go because there are 24 limitations relative to the receipt of money and the 25 general fund.

1 The second recommendation was that there
2 be a new 8.4(h). And why is 8.4 important rather 3 than a 1.3 or 1.5, or whatever? If you look at the 4 decisions of the Court of Appeals and the 5 recommendations of bar counsel, a violation of 8.4
6 is generally the basis for the more serious 7 sanctions. So the sanctions subcommittee wanted to 8 ensure that violations of the -- or repeated and 9 egregious violations of the rules of professionalism 10 would result in a more serious sanction and included 11 this in 8.4(h). The importance of the language here 12 is repeated or egregious.

13 Now, why is there an "or" rather than an 14 "and"? Because the commission was concerned about 15 the fact that you could have an individual basically 16 egregiously violate the standards of 17 professionalism, and it didn't have to be in a 18 repeated fashion. There would also be a new 19 addition in terms of a comment to 8.4(h) which 20 basically emphasizes the value of professionalism.

21 There would be an amendment to Judicial 22 Canon 3 which, in the first part, it seems obvious, 23 "A judge shall require order and decorum in 24 proceedings." But the new aspect would be, "And 25 shall report egregious or repeated violations of the 1 standard to the Attorney Grievance Commission." The 2 importance of the language is in the "shall" rather 3 than in the "may". So a judge is required to report

4 egregious or repeated violations of the standards
5 under this new Judicial Canon to the Attorney 6 Grievance Commission.

7 Discovery abuse. As I said, we found a
8 lot of discussion about discovery abuse throughout 9 the state, and there were different -- differing 10 bases for it in each of the counties. There was a 11 recognition that sometimes there's discovery
12 disputes resulting from the fact that there are no 13 standardized discovery forms that people can rely 14 upon, that basically it would be useful to have 15 Maryland Discovery Guidelines. But also there was a 16 suggestion that, like the business and technology
17 opinions of the Circuit Court judges, that discovery
18 dispute opinions be included on the court's web site
19 which, although not precedential, would be helpful 20 for people to understand what's going on in terms of 21 discovery disputes and some of the resolutions.

22 There was also a recommendation in the 23 largest -- in the counties with the largest volume 24 of filings that there be a discovery judge, similar 25 to that which is now in Prince George's County with

1 Judge Tom Smith, as well as in Baltimore City with 2 Judges Kaye Allison and Stewart Berger, so that one 3 judge would be able to handle not only issues about 4 interrogatories or requests for production of 5 documents, but also could be available for disputes 6 that arose during deposition proceedings. And that 7 was because of the fact that there would be an 8 efficient as well as timely response to a discovery 9 dispute because people throughout the state talked 10 about just how expensive it is for litigants to be 11 enmeshed in discovery disputes.

12 In the smaller counties or in the counties 13 with fewer filings, there's a recommendation to have 14 a master, and that could be an attorney or a 15 judicial officer, who would be there to settle 16 discovery disputes and would make recommendations to 17 the judge. All of this was -- is being recommended 18 basically to facilitate the process of discovery 19 dispute resolution.

20 We also address mentoring. It's 21 interesting because in the smaller counties, there 22 still exists an informal mentoring process where new 23 attorneys oftentimes are introduced to the judges 24 into the bar by more experienced attorneys. This 25 process has been lost oftentimes in the state in the

Kathy A. Zeve, RPR
Worcester County Circuit Court

1 larger counties as well as in the suburban counties.

2 We became aware of the fact, though, that 3 the Maryland State Bar Association does have a 4 mentoring program. Although it's not used, we 5 believe it's because of the fact that it hasn't been 6 advertised to the new admittees. So there's a 7 recommendation that the new admittees have mentors 8 basically matched with them during the course of the 9 new admittees program in December and in May, and 10 that the young lawyers basically take 11 responsibility.

12 There's also a recommendation for the two 13 Maryland law schools. And the reason why it's two 14 Maryland law schools as adverse to other law 15 schools is because we wanted to start with what we 16 knew. And the Maryland law schools are excited 17 about this program where we have a judicial 18 experience program where we have second- and 19 third-year students basically shadow a judge for 40 20 hours and learn what a true professional does as 21 well as what the judge's perception was of 22 unprofessional conduct or professional conduct. And 23 this program would be totally voluntary and would be 24 throughout the state. The judges would volunteer 25 for the program and the law students would

Kathy A. Zeve, RPR
Worcester County Circuit Court

1 volunteer.

2 We also had recommendations made about the 3 new admittees course on professionalism. As many of 4 you know who have taught in the course, some of the 5 video vignettes are somewhat long in the tooth. But 6 there were recommendations made relative to some of 7 the logistics about the course. The main aspect 8 that the new admittees subcommittee considered is 9 whether the course should be given within the year
10 after a person is admitted as adverse to what's done 11 now which is right before admission. The reason is, 12 is because they thought that there would be an 13 opportunity for that new admittees to have already 14 experienced some of the issues confounding them in 15 the practice of law and would come better prepared 16 to have discussion about professionalism.

17 However, that being said, as you know, the 18 professionalism course is administered by the 19 Voluntary Bar Association and Maryland State Bar 20 Association, and the logistics of doing this after 21 admission leading to decertification if people did 22 not take the course were basically problematic. So 23 at this point, the timing remains the same in terms 24 of the recommendation.

25 We also, in terms of the commission, felt

1 that there should be some discussion about -- more 2 discussion about discovery abuse and what should be 3 done in terms of discovery disputes, and also have 4 some writing requirements in terms of the new 5 admittees course.

6 Now, Norman, this is the arrant attorneys.
7 We had a lot of discussion -- the whole concept of 8 professionalism came up because of what people were 9 concerned about in terms of those attorneys who 10 repeatedly and egregiously violate professionalism 11 norms. And when we started talking about those 12 attorneys, we had to come up with a title for them
13 because we didn't want to call them bad attorneys 14 versus good attorneys, so we came up with the term
15 arrant attorneys. And Norman Smith, our reporter 16 for the commission, was the head of that 17 subcommittee. So, Norman, I'll let you take it from 18 here.

19 MR. SMITH: Thank you. As Judge
20 Battaglia said earlier and as you recall, this 21 entire enterprise began with the notion of a -- when 22 I say the entire enterprise, going back to the task
23 force, began with the MSBA recommendation that there 24 be a mandatory course in professionalism for 25 experienced lawyers. That proposal, I do believe,

1 is still on the table in the court, if I'm not 2 mistaken.

3 However, when we travel throughout the 4 state with the task force, we found that enthusiasm 5 for that mandatory course was at a low ebb. So we 6 thought, well, we'll resurrect it again as a 7 voluntary, or if not voluntary, as a course for 8 arrant lawyers, sort of a way to try to change
9 behavior. And toward that end, we thought that it 10 would be something that could be used, for instance, 11 by the Attorney Grievance Commission. Many of the 12 Attorney Grievance Commission cases are resolved, 13 you know, in an informal sort of way. And the more 14 we looked at it, though, all the other states that 15 have courses in professionalism are part of a 16 mandatory CLE program which we do not have in 17 Maryland. So those courses are both sort of 18 overinclusive and underinclusive at the same time.
19 They deal with things -- such things, important 20 things such as management of a law firm, management 21 of a practice, management of an escrow account, how 22 to manage a staff, punctuality, all important things 23 with regard to professionalism, but we're more 24 interested in the change in the behavior of the 25 arrant attorney, that is to say, civility,

Kathy A. Zeve, RPR
Worcester County Circuit Court

1 integrity, those sorts of things.

2 So we looked into two specific states, New 3 Jersey and South Carolina, where -- in which they 4 have programs of counseling for arrant attorneys, 5 and thought that might be a better way to go at 6 least for the time being. And those recommendations 7 we had. And this is the whole idea. These 8 sanctions, as we -- as Judge Battaglia said before, 9 sort of get ramped up as the -- the larger sanctions 10 go for attorneys who have demonstrated egregious and 11 repeated violations of the standards of 12 professionalism.

13 However, you'll notice that a judge may 14 impose fines or monetary penalties for just 15 violations of the standards of professionalism, but 16 Canon 3 says that, "A judge shall refer repeated and 17 egregious violations of the standards of 18 professionalism to the Attorney Grievance
19 Commission." Those presumably would be violations 20 of proposed new Rule 8.4(h).

21 Counseling comes in at the very low end of 22 this. And sort of go with me on this. The -- I
23 know there's a lot of people smiling and there 24 always are. In other words, can you teach a person 25 not to be a jackass I guess is the question? We

1 certainly hope so. And, you know, behavioral 2 modification or the possibility for behavioral 3 modification is sort of at the cornerstone of this 4 notion.

5 So what we've asked -- what we're 6 recommending to the Court is that the Court ask both 7 the bar associations to perform -- to form
8 professionalism subcommittees. And it's important, 9 we think, that both professionalism subcommittees 10 include judges and retired judges because the 11 recommendation goes on to suggest that panels from 12 that subcommittee be formed to counsel lawyers who 13 have shown -- been shown to have these problems.
14 Judges could refer them, I suppose, again, that a -- 15 one of the things that the Attorney Grievance 16 Commission often asks is a part of an informal 17 resolution of a complaint is that that arrant 18 attorney take an ethics course. And having 19 represented a number of lawyers, you know, finding 20 themselves in that crosshairs, ethics courses are 21 hard to find except at the law schools. So this 22 could perhaps be something once more with a 23 conditional diversionary agreement that a lawyer 24 might seek this counseling.

25 So that's the model that we've come up

1 with for -- at least for this time, that the Court 2 would ask local bar associations to perform -- to 3 form professionalism subcommittees for the purpose
4 of counseling arrant lawyers as it says right here.

5 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Great. We also dealt
6 with the issue about unauthorized practice of law.
7 By that I mean, if you remember, there was a concern 8 that some lawyers acted unprofessionally because of 9 the fact that they felt desperate about whether they 10 could make a living. And there were concerns about 11 the fact that oftentimes there was the unauthorized 12 practice of law engaged in by institutions, 13 individuals and all of that.

14 Interestingly enough, when the 15 unauthorized practice of law subcommittee looked 16 into this, they found that there was not one 17 complaint by an attorney against an institution or 18 against anyone else. What they found was the 19 complaints regarding unauthorized practice of law
20 were basically lodged by people who had been subject 21 to a scam by someone who had represented in one way, 22 shape or form that he or she was an attorney.

23 So the recommendation came about that 24 there would not be any tweaking of the statutory 25 definition of unauthorized practice of law because

1 it wasn't the statutory definition that was the 2 problem, it was the fact that there weren't any 3 prosecutions relative to the unauthorized practice
4 of law in part because of the resources that are not 5 available to the Attorney General's Office that 6 basically prosecutes the unauthorized practice of 7 law, and there weren't really viable test cases to 8 be pursued by the Attorney Grievance Commission.

9 But what happened was, the subcommittee
10 recommended that the Maryland State Bar Association
11 continue to look at this whole process to determine 12 what could be done and what should be done relative 13 to the economics of law practice. And that there 14 was a recommendation that what we're looking at is, 15 in terms of the unauthorized practice of law, we're 16 looking at it the wrong way because the communities 17 think that we're basically protecting our turf when 18 really the issue is the protection of the public, 19 and we need to get out there and educate them about 20 the value of lawyers. So there are all of these 21 recommendations relative to education of the 22 community and to supporting the Attorney Grievance
23 Commission as well as the Attorney General's Office 24 and looking for appropriate cases that could be 25 prosecuted relative to the unauthorized practice of 1 law.

2 Now, if you recall, we were talking about 3 the fact that oftentimes we found that judges were 4 more detached from the community and from the bar.
5 In many of the jurisdictions this has happened 6 because the judges are behind locked doors because 7 of security. In other circumstances, it's because 8 the judges believe that they could not be on or be 9 involved with the bar in the community because of 10 the fact that they would have to be recused.

11 Now, Bill, this is yours.

12 MR. HUDSON: I think the perception of 13 the subcommittee of the commission was that judges 14 lock themselves behind closed doors more of a fear 15 of perceived improprieties on the part of the 16 judges. The notion was that if they were out there 17 in the community involved in organizations, involved 18 with the bar, that they were going to open up the 19 newspaper one day and see their dreaded name in the 20 newspaper. In more of a desire to avoid that, they 21 simply locked themselves up.

22 One of the first things we did was look at 23 Maryland Rule 16-813 as well as Canon 4 of the Canon
24 Judicial Ethics, and we took a rather exhaustive 25 review of that law to determine what, if any,

1 limitations they imposed upon the judiciary in terms
2 of their political involvement, community
3 involvement, et cetera. And ultimately, the more
4 metropolitan members of the subcommittee concluded 5 that many members of the judiciary seem to seize 6 upon those authorities as support for them to draw 7 them being attached.

8 I can honestly say, having practiced in 9 Worcester County for many years, that we don't have 10 that problem. We have a very involved judiciary.
11 Most of you frequently attend bar association
12 meetings. There tends to be an open-door policy
13 than I think in the more metropolitan jurisdictions 14 the attorneys don't enjoy.

15 But the concern that we identified was 16 that by failing to encourage the judiciary to get 17 involved in community activities and bar activities, 18 it allows those judges who would otherwise isolate 19 themselves to hide behind the fact that there's 20 nothing in the rule that encourages it. So the 21 primary recommendation of the subcommittee was that 22 we revamp the rule, we revamp the Canon so that it 23 explicitly encourages members of the judiciary to be 24 involved with the bar association and to be involved 25 in community organizations. That I think is the

Kathy A. Zeve, RPR
Worcester County Circuit Court

1 primary thing we needed to take out of the 2 subcommittee. There were some other issues that I 3 didn't think were as nearly as important as that.

4 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Great. And this was,
5 as Bill said, it's -- it was done so that the judges 6 would know that the value of professionalism was 7 increased by their involvement in the bar and the 8 community.

9 The last recommendation of the commission
10 was that the commission be the clearinghouse for all 11 of the opportunities that have been suggested and 12 recommended and considered by the Professionalism
13 Commission as well as in these community meetings.

14 The importance of that is, though, in its 15 funding because at the present time, the commission 16 has no funding. It's operated out of my chambers, 17 and really, the commission needs to have its own 18 staff in order to continue. And the recommendation 19 was pursuant to those situations where there are 20 commissions through the United States and there is 21 no mandatory continuing legal education, that the 22 support of the commission come from every attorney 23 in the state, not just those members of bar 24 associations, because not all members of the 25 profession in Maryland are members of bar

1 associations; 20,000 are members of the Maryland 2 State Bar out of about 30,000 of lawyers admitted to 3 practice. So the commission funding, according to 4 this recommendation, would come from a five or 5 $10 assessment each year that would be associated 6 with the Client Protection Fund assessment and would 7 be collected by the Client Protection Fund.

8 And with that, those are the 9 recommendations of the commission, and we would like 10 to now entertain any additions, modifications, 11 corrections, suggestions, anything that you would 12 like to discuss. We're not taking down anybody's 13 names or anything like that, so this is all going 14 in, again, anonymously. Of course, if Judge Cathell 15 says anything, we'll make sure to mention his name.

16 JUDGE CATHELL: I'll mention one thing
17 right now. I don't think any of the judges sitting 18 here inside the bench are ever going to submit 19 speeches they're going to give to civic 20 organizations to the Administrative Office of Court.
21 I've never done so. I don't intend to start doing 22 so. I think all of us are competent to decide what 23 we can and cannot say. I'm not going to have some 24 bureaucrat at the Administrative Office of Courts 25 telling me what to say. I think I can speak for all

1 of the judges and ladies.

2 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: I think that was a
3 request by some of the judges because they wanted to 4 have it, but I don't think it would ever be 5 mandatory. That's not the flavor that I got from 6 the subcommittee. Is that right, Bill?

7 MR. HUDSON: That is right.

8 JUDGE CATHELL: I don't know whether it
9 be a clearinghouse. If you wanted to make sure you 10 weren't going to get a call from Chief Judge Bell 11 the next morning --

12 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: It would be like an 13 advisory opinion, obviously, help some of the 14 judges. In some of the larger jurisdictions, as you 15 know, there are circumstances that evolved from some 16 of the judges' speeches that are problems.

17 So, other questions in this conversation.

18 JUDGE CATHELL: What did you say about 19 punctuality earlier?

20 MR. BLOXOM: Some of us had other jobs.

21 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Questions,
22 modifications, concerns, anything you want to bring 23 up?

24 MR. TOWNSEND: Hello. Should I stand
25 up?

1 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: I'd be happy to stand.

2 MR. TOWNSEND: I'll sit. I have some 3 general concerns about the conceptual approach to 4 this. I expressed them in a letter to the editor in 5 the Daily Record a couple months ago. And my 6 general concern is that we're trying to set up an 7 administrative structure and set of regulations that 8 we think are going to change the public's attitude 9 about lawyers and perhaps change lawyers' attitudes 10 about themselves. And I think the approach of the 11 work you've done is wonderful. But I would -- my 12 view is to exercise restraint in being too fast to 13 build another regulatory and disciplinary system 14 around something that is a conceptual problem in the 15 public, and it's a conceptual problem among some 16 lawyers.

17 I think it's foolish to think that we can 18 resurrect Atticus Finch. Maybe we wish we could.
19 And there certainly is a difference in the size of 20 communities. I know because I was very fortunate to 21 be able to move down here and practice from 22 Montgomery County, and the difference is dramatic.
23 And that was, I guess, 14 years ago.

24 But we see a lot of this -- I'm on the 25 ethics commission for the State Bar Association.

1 I've been involved, as you know, Judge, with the 2 panel peer review. And there are a lot of lawyers 3 that just don't care about what we're talking about.

4 And one of the points I made in the 5 article is that our changing point was Bates versus 6 Arizona when they authorized something I could get 7 disbarred for when I started and some other lawyers
8 here, too. And when that came legitimate, I think 9 the phrase I used in the article was that we joined 10 forces with the Veg-O-Matic salesmen and used car 11 dealers, and good-bye professionalism.

12 I think a lot of this is conceptual, and I
13 urge restraint in marching into an expanded 14 disciplinary system. There are lawyers that can be 15 educated on this.

16 I'll give you a good example, or at least 17 to me it's a good example, and it's one that Glenn 18 Grossman uses also to do lectures to lawyers and 19 say, when you get that hated letter from the bar 20 counsel stuff, is the very first thing you do is 21 make contact because a lot of these things can be 22 worked out, they want to work them out. That's what 23 the whole peer review system is all about. And some 24 of the more serious violations, there's no point in 25 sending them to peer review, the 8.4 violations, for

1 example, because the essence of the peer review 2 success is condition on the conversion rate, and the 3 bar counsel's office not only will not but cannot 4 enter into a CDA with, an example, an 8.4 violation, 5 so it's really nothing but bench showing. So that's 6 just a general concern that I have.

7 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Thank you. There was 8 a hand over here.

9 MR. PHILLIPS: I just want to say one
10 thing, that the mentoring system, the lawyers 11 assistance program of the Maryland State Bar also 12 offers that. It's not publicized, but there is that 13 program as part of the LAP for young lawyers or 14 lawyers who are having problems.

15 I served on the board for a number of 16 years, and one of my complaints is we do not 17 publicize that fact enough statewide to encourage 18 people to contact us whenever they're having a 19 problem so we can help them avoid that, coming into 20 contact with the grievance program.

21 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: And Richard Vincent
22 has said that, too. And I think one of the things 23 that we need to take back to the commission also is 24 to have that included in the commission report.

25 MR. PHILLIPS: I would say one other

1 thing. I've had the privilege of meeting a number 2 of lawyers throughout the United States, and one of 3 the things that really interests me was the fact
4 that some of the bar programs in other states 5 require a one-year term of mentoring before they 6 become admitted, and that the admission ceremony is 7 a family-related thing rather than a division. And 8 that the judges actually come down from the court 9 and talk among the new admittees and say, "These are 10 the people that are your brothers and sisters of the 11 bar." And civility, civility, civility is stressed.
12 And we don't do that.

13 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: When you say -- how do
14 they do that? Do they do it in the -- in the Court
15 of Appeals we do that now in a series of admission 16 ceremonies as you remember. Do they do -- and is 17 there something different about those admission 18 ceremonies?

19 MR. PHILLIPS: Well, the Delaware
20 admission ceremony is after the one-year mentoring 21 program. And the mentor has a schedule. You have 22 so many hearings and different agencies you have to 23 go and monitor and make a report back to your 24 mentor, and that includes the way professionals deal 25 with one another. After that, the report is sent

1 and then you are then sworn in. And then the 2 court -- it's a high T type of approach at the Court
3 of Appeals, the Supreme Court in Delaware.

4 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Thank you. Skip.

5 MR. TOWNSEND: I had one thing on 6 mentoring. I'm going back 20 years now on the 7 Administrators and Trusts Committee in Montgomery
8 County, or even before then, and this is the 9 problem. It's not endemic to small practices like 10 us. But in the larger cities where most of these 11 problems occur, these young associates are under 12 incredible pressure to bill time. Not what kind of 13 a mentoring you have, how many hundred hours did you 14 bill last week. And my attitude is, especially in 15 the large firms, you should put pressure from 16 mentoring right on the senior partners in the law 17 firms because the problem has started there, and 18 that's where it ought to be solved rather than other 19 lawyers, other judges, other mediators, whatever it 20 is, taking up the slack.

21 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Thank you.

22 JUDGE CATHELL: I think part of what 23 Skip's talking about is a lot of the problems that 24 we hear at our level really don't originate from 25 counties like this county. It's just compared to

1 some of the major jurisdictions in this state, we're 2 heaven when it comes to professionalism. I can't 3 remember -- you know, a little squabble every now 4 and then, but serious acts of unprofessionalism just 5 did not exist back when I sat down here, and I think 6 don't exist much here.

7 One other thing I do want to say. Does 8 anybody have any comments that they want to be 9 considered but don't necessarily want to speak them
10 out loud in front of everybody else? Write me a 11 letter. And if you don't want to be identified, I 12 won't identify you, but I will bring it to the 13 attention of the other judges in my court when we're 14 voting on these things in January, as with 15 Judge Battaglia, but you may feel more comfortable
16 writing. Even though she sat next to me for a long 17 while and she's getting a little Eastern Shore in 18 her, you may want to come directly to me. I'll be 19 glad to receive a letter. And I don't know how I 20 feel about some of this.

21 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: We also encourage you,
22 if you have -- if you do have something and you want 23 to send it in and you want to do it by e-mail, you 24 can e-mail me at court, or you can send it by letter 25 or call. And we've been appending everybody's

1 comments to the minutes of the county where they 2 have been, you know, associated with.

3 Other comments, questions, concerns,
4 recommendations, additions.

5 JUDGE CATHELL: I would like to thank 6 the head honcho here in the county, Judge
7 Eschenburg, for doing -- and I guess Judge Groton.
8 I don't know who sent the letter out.

9 JUDGE GROTON: It was Judge Eschenburg.

10 JUDGE CATHELL: And through one way or 11 another, you've gotten a great turnout even though I 12 imagine there's this blackmail or extortion, various 13 threats and the like.

14 JUDGE BLOXOM: It was three things;
15 persuasion, coercion and a free lunch.

16 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Free lunch is what 17 did it, Dale.

18 MR. TOWNSEND: I do have a question on 19 these areas, whether they're going to assign judges 20 to all the discovery disputes?

21 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: In the larger --

22 MR. TOWNSEND: Will they be pegged on 23 the basis that they granted two or more motions to 24 suppress in the last years, they're going to move 25 them over to discovery.

1 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: I think there was a 2 comment back here.

3 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: I have one comment
4 myself. And I think all of us -- in fact, I'm 5 certain all of us at one time or another -- by all
6 of us, I mean the judges specifically -- the word
7 "political functions" was mentioned and civically
8 being involved. I, and I'm sure all the judges 9 have, get invitations, both oral and written, to 10 attend political functions. Civic functions are 11 quite often ones that are to raise money for very 12 good reasons, cancer and heart research and so on, 13 and we've always been told that we can't. And yet, 14 if I understood what Mr. Smith was saying, that 15 we're sort of being encouraged to do that. And 16 everything I've ever read, every opinion I've ever 17 read is, you can't. So I've always felt, in a tiny 18 little degree, that judges are sort of forced to 19 become second-class citizens.

20 I mean, I don't know how many times in a 21 year a civic organization -- the last one was where 22 you get locked up and they have to call somebody to 23 bail you out. I told them, first of all, I didn't 24 think they would get a single call to bail me out.
25 But it's things like that that you might want -- and

1 it would be fun to do and you might want to do, but 2 as far as I know, you can't do, and you'd get in 3 trouble if you did. And it is sometimes difficult 4 to explain that to -- you know, when, for instance, 5 a sheriff might get himself locked up -- there he 6 is -- and he actually may have somebody come bail
7 him out. But I don't think he's under the same 8 pressures that all the rest of us are under and 9 authorities and opinions because they rarely come 10 out on the side of the judges.

11 JUDGE CATHELL: I think they're talking 12 about recommending a change in the Canons of 13 Judicial Ethics that would permit that. I'm not -- 14 I limit myself to avoiding all political --

15 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Dale, I'll tell you
16 how far back this goes. I was a District Court
17 judge for 18 months. During that 18-month period -- 18 so this is right after I'm first on the bench. I 19 was real active with AMSA, as you know, which is a 20 sports fisherman association, and I was down to 21 Sunfest during its very early -- it was probably the 22 second or third one they ever had. I forget. It
23 was a relatively a minor event then. And I manned
24 for -- I don't know -- three or four hours a table
25 where I sold, I think it was chances on a fishing

1 rod and reel, and you would sell, like, hats and 2 T-shirts that has AMSA on it, and you tried to get 3 members to sign up, and somebody said something to 4 me about it. At that point in time, Bill Adkins was 5 the guy you call, and so I called Bill Adkins and 6 was advised, no, I shouldn't do that. I was lending 7 my office, the prestige of the office, to raise 8 money, take a chance, sell a T-shirt. And that was 9 sort of a sobering experience at a very young age on 10 the bench. And ever since then I've read with some 11 interest the opinions that have come down, and it's 12 real rare anybody backs the judges. So I think 13 you're going to have to take a very hard look at the 14 rules as they currently exist because I think we're 15 foolish to take a chance that somebody's going to be 16 on our side even though some of these things would 17 be nice and fun to do.

18 MR. TOWNSEND: There's an additional 19 part in there, too, Judge. If somebody said if 20 you're raising funds for cancer, that's fine, but 21 you can't raise funds for the fishing association, 22 who makes the decision on which one is okay and 23 which one is not?

24 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Well, you can't raise 25 it even for cancer.

1 JUDGE CATHELL: You're not allowed to 2 lend your -- the prestige of the office that you
3 hold to raising money for any entity. That doesn't 4 mean you can't go, in my view, to the annual 5 Alzheimer's benefit. You can go as any other person 6 who can go and buy your 25 or $35 ticket and sit 7 there and watch these little girls dance or whatever 8 they have that year, but you could not be on the 9 committee that creates that function, you could not 10 be -- have your name on the lettering.

11 I'll give you an example of what Judge 12 Eschenburg's talking about. When he and I were both 13 on the Circuit Court, we received a letter from the 14 Chief Judge of the state to see if -- I'll tell you 15 how confusing it is -- Chief Judge Bob Murphy
16 reminding us that we were expected to donate X
17 number of dollars or X -- he was looking for X 18 number of dollars to be donated by the judges to the 19 United Way. We wrote -- or I wrote a letter to 20 Chief Judge Bob Murphy explaining he could not do 21 that under the Canon Judicial Ethics. And then he 22 sent a letter out to everybody else and said, 23 "Forget the last letter I mailed." So I mean, he 24 was the Chief Judge of the state --

25 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Dale, you could have

1 guessed that.

2 JUDGE CATHELL: -- sending letters out
3 to all the judges in the state telling them to 4 contribute to a specific charity.

5 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: And I've got news for 6 you, I still get those letters from the county to 7 this day, just recently.

8 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Did you want to say
9 anything?

10 MR. HUDSON: I think that you're right
11 that the Canons prescribe the fundraising activity 12 by the judge but don't prevent the judge from 13 attending. I think the concern is that it's a 14 somewhat slippery slope. You get there --

15 JUDGE CATHELL: They want you to say
16 something. You can't say something.

17 MR. HUDSON: And the state's discourse 18 therefore was to just stay away to avoid the 19 entanglement.

20 JUDGE CATHELL: I think you can actually 21 go to political -- if you're a judge -- and speak on 22 court matters, but you have to speak before the 23 business meeting of that political organization and 24 leave, get out of the room, before any political 25 discussions are held. But I've never done it, and I

1 really don't think I've done it. I don't intend to 2 do it because you don't know what's going to happen
3 when you get to the political event.

4 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: I agree with what you
5 are doing here. I think judges should be a little 6 more actively involved in the community. I would 7 like to be and can't. That's the bottom line of it.

8 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Good.

9 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: And when you -- you
10 know, you get these people that work all year long, 11 whether it be for cancer or heart, whatever it is, 12 it's always a good cause, and they call you and it's 13 only going to require a couple hours of your time, 14 and you have to tell them no. I'm probably the only 15 person, other than the other judges, that have told 16 them that. And so that leaves a bad perception, and 17 I would think it certainly doesn't endear me with 18 them.

19 JUDGE CATHELL: What a lot of them do is 20 they realize that the judge has a very active 21 spouse, and she ends up getting involved in 22 everything.

23 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Well, she's been 24 involved in a whole lot more than she should have 25 lately, if you see, every time you pick up a paper.

1 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Charlotte, your name
2 isn't being taken in vain. But everybody knows who 3 you're talking about.

4 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Charlotte's in the 5 paper daily.

6 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: We had a hand back 7 there.

8 MR. GASKILL: I have a question about 9 the proposed new Maryland Rule 1-342. It seems to 10 me that this is similar to a contempt of court 11 finding. And there are no convections written in 12 the rule regarding burden of proof or anything like 13 that.

14 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: So the due process
15 needs to be defined.

16 MR. GASKILL: Yes.

17 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: These, as I said, were 18 recommendations sent to the Rules Committee. But 19 we've heard this enough probably that the commission 20 should take it up in terms of making whatever 21 recommendations there should be about due process.
22 Thank you.

23 There was another hand.

24 MR. COLLINS: It may have been cleared 25 up already. Are the sanctions that are proposed for

1 these violations of decorum or professionalism, will 2 they in any way reflect upon the client; in other 3 words, you do this too much, you get a default 4 judgment?

5 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Well, the concept
6 is -- there was a concern that was voiced at the 7 commission level that clients shouldn't be paying 8 for, you know, that --

9 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Misconduct.

10 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: -- misconduct by the 11 attorney. That the assessment, if there's a 12 monetary assessment or whatever, that it should be 13 upon the attorney rather than on the client because 14 there's a sense, especially in the discovery dispute 15 area, that the clients are victimized by this 16 process oftentimes because they're paying more for 17 some of these discovery dispute resolutions. So in 18 answer to your question, what I can say is that 19 there was a recognition that the client shouldn't 20 have to pay for the misconduct by attorneys unless 21 they're the people who are -- you know, the 22 individuals who are engaging in this conduct.

23 Let me just say that there's also a flavor 24 of, what do we do with pro se litigants? And if 25 Judge Bell were here, he would say that Judge Green

1 of our court is going to be heading up a study
2 committee about how we deal with pro se litigants
3 these days because we haven't really defined it.

4 MR. COLLINS: The other half of the 5 question, since I'm a prosecutor, is if there is any 6 kind of sanction on the client, how does that apply
7 in criminal cases? If you've got a ridiculously 8 unprofessional defense attorney, obviously there's 9 only so much you can do to him before it starts 10 reflecting on the client, and that opens up a whole 11 new can of worms.

12 JUDGE CATHELL: I think we have a 13 similar program coming up Pete's probably going to 14 address some of these situations about what an 15 attorney can or can't do in a criminal case at time
16 of sentencing, or whether you have to tell the judge 17 certain things. Is your program in November going 18 to touch on some aspect of what Scott talked about?

19 MR. WIMBROW: Well, I'm hoping that you
20 are, Judge, that you're a part of the package.

21 JUDGE CATHELL: I thought that's what 22 you had me there, as a heavy hitter.

23 MR. WIMBROW: That's right.

24 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Other comments,
25 questions, concerns, additions, anything else. Go

1 ahead.

2 MR. FARLOW: I would like to reiterate
3 what Skip said a little while ago. Making this 4 something that's subject to sanctions right from the 5 get-go seems to me to be taking it a little bit 6 further than it needs to go.

7 A few years ago we had another one of 8 these programs where we came in here, we talked 9 about voluntarism, and we had an aspiration of 50 10 hours, that we're supposed to volunteer. And that's 11 been a program that's been working well. Lawyers 12 have been reporting there's public pressure to go 13 ahead and do the 50 hours of service if it's 14 applicable. And it seems to me that the nature of 15 the problem, if there is a problem, is such that 16 it's not something you should be seeking sanctions 17 for right away. Make it an issue where it can be 18 reported on. Let's do a program for a couple of 19 years where if there's problems with 20 professionalism, report it, but no sanctions. Let's 21 see if there really is a problem before we go ahead 22 and enclose a whole set of rules that looks like, 23 you know, we may be required to do continuing legal 24 education that's part of the educational process, a 25 specific number of hours that each lawyer should try

1 to do that. And part of it's talking about each 2 lawyer should try to make it a moral practice of 3 law, or we should look at it not as a business, but 4 as a high end of civic mindedness. Let's just see 5 where we're at and let's give everybody an 6 opportunity to see if we really do need to impose 7 sanctions before we have to go down that road of 8 making it mandatory of putting everybody on the 9 block of something like that.

10 JUDGE CATHELL: I think everybody on the 11 block, that's -- we don't see the problems here that 12 we see when we get the opinions and the transcripts
13 of the cases everywhere. We don't normally see a 14 discovery video in which one lawyer calls the other 15 one a jerk. No, you're a jerk. No, you're a jerk.
16 Let's go outside and fight. That happens. I don't 17 know that it happens here. I never saw it happen
18 here.

19 So what you're proposing I think is 20 something that is less necessary and relevant, at 21 least in this county, to the best of my knowledge.
22 And I think that's a little bit what Skip and what 23 you're talking about. We're not there -- I don't 24 think that we're there yet. And I think there's 25 some concern about another disciplinary layer on

1 lawyers. You already have the Attorney Grievance
2 Commission. This is going to be another level or 3 another layer.

4 MR. TOWNSEND: And also on the same
5 vein, one of the early things I learned when I
6 started practicing, we all were taught by older 7 lawyers what was appropriate. The worst -- this is 8 discovery disputes. The worst curse that could be 9 put on you is, "Get it in writing." Somebody calls 10 up Greg Coburn and says, "I just got a case from a 11 guy named Skip Townsend. Can you tell me anything 12 about him?" And his response is, "Get it in 13 writing," which means you're not to be trusted.

14 It was virtually impossible to get out 15 from under that curse once you had it. There was no
16 written rule on it. And maybe, again, there's a 17 degree of difficulty the larger the jurisdiction is.
18 But it just -- that's just a follow-up.

19 MR. GASKILL: I was wondering, I read
20 last week that the amount of complaints of the bar 21 counsel has been decreasing year after year, and 22 what consideration your committee is taking with 23 regard to that. It seems like we're starting this 24 new layer of bureaucracy, and we're forcing civility 25 and professionalism when the reality is that

1 complaints are going down.

2 JUDGE CATHELL: I don't think they're 3 going down on a pro ratio basis for attorneys. The 4 number of attorneys we, I think, disbarred last year
5 18 or 19 attorneys, and indefinitely suspended 6 another 25 or 30 which is a big difference in our 7 profession than the medical profession.

8 But commenting on the pro bono thing about 9 how everybody complies with it, it hasn't been a 10 year, I think it's been two years now, there hasn't 11 been a year yet which I haven't sat down and gotten 12 the list and picked up the phone and called 13 attorneys in Worcester County to remind them that 14 they hadn't done their pro bono stuff. That's why 15 we have -- we would have 99 percent compliance. I 16 called them up, and we had a hundred percent 17 compliance in this county. So people forget.

18 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: And there are some 19 people who continue to forget who we call every 20 year, but not in Worcester County.

21 Any other comments, additions,
22 modifications, anything else that you think that 23 we've forgotten or you would like us to change?

24 MR. PHILLIPS: How do you plan to 25 dovetail this in with accounting for zealously

1 regarding the rights of your client?

2 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: That -- you know, the 3 new 8.4(e) had the same issues arise relative to 4 what I hear is that First Amendment sort of thing.
5 And as with 8.4(e), that will always be an issue
6 because the limitation is always a free speech 7 limitation.

8 MR. PHILLIPS: You also have the Sixth
9 Amendment problem, too.

10 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Absolutely. That's 11 true, again, with the 8.4(e). Those were two of the 12 same issues that were brought up.

13 JUDGE CATHELL: I would think that 14 professionalism would not apply to the pro se 15 litigant because he's not a member of the profession 16 even though he's acting as his own lawyer. I don't 17 know whether he's subject to that type of discipline 18 or not. Most of them you can scare them.

19 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Well, the pro se 20 litigation issue was brought up in almost each of 21 the meetings that we had throughout the state, and 22 Judge Bell just told me that Judge Green's going to 23 look at that, that whole issue, because it confounds
24 many of the judges and many of the lawyers
25 throughout the state, how do you deal with a pro se

1 litigant.

2 There was another hand. Okay. Norman.

3 MR. HUDSON: Can I just say one thing?

4 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Sure.

5 MR. HUDSON: Having sat through many of 6 the commission meetings, all of the aspirational 7 goals, the mentoring, the educational aspects, there 8 was near unanimous support within the commission for 9 the aspirational goals and how we can improve upon 10 what we're already doing.

11 But when it came to sanctions, it was 12 obvious within the commission that there was pretty 13 substantial divide between those who wanted it and 14 those who didn't. Presumably, if we as local bar 15 associations don't make our voices heard on that, 16 the commission will ultimately be forwarding to the 17 court a recommendation that the sanctions be 18 included in the recommendations.

19 How as an association -- to whom, I should 20 say, as an association, to the extent we're reminded 21 to do so, should our comments be directed?

22 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: It would either be to 23 me or to you, I mean, so that you can bring them up 24 at the commission meeting because, obviously, we're 25 going to be starting to meet again in January.

1 JUDGE CATHELL: Well, from what he says,
2 directly to you as the judge or to Bob Bell, he'll 3 copy everybody else on the Court of Appeals, and 4 we'll get a letter. If you mail it to me, I'll copy
5 everybody else on the Court of Appeals. So whatever 6 anybody here or the association as a formal 7 association wants to say, if you say it and get it 8 to us, it will be there before the judges. And, of 9 course, it will be forwarded to the commission.

10 This happens all the time with all these 11 commissions. Whatever goes to Bob Bell gets sent to 12 all six of us -- all seven of us.

13 Speak up. Don't complain later on. If 14 you don't send a letter or don't ask questions now, 15 don't complain later on after whatever happens 16 happens if it happens.

17 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Go ahead.

18 MR. COLLINS: I'll get in trouble for 19 this, but why not. Everybody in favor of mandatory 20 sanctions raise your hand.

21 JUDGE CATHELL: I have to abstain
22 because I have to vote on it.

23 MR. WIMBROW: Scott, how about mandatory
24 sanctions on out-of-county lawyers.

25 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: All those in favor of

1 mandatory sanctions on carpetbaggers, is that what 2 you're saying?

3 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: There was -- what we 4 found in many of the more rural counties that they 5 spoke about it in terms of out-of-county attorneys.

6 JUDGE CATHELL: What you're really
7 trying, I think, to do, and I say this as a positive 8 thing, you're trying to take those counties that 9 aren't the way we are and make them the way we are.

10 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: That would be nice.

11 JUDGE CATHELL: That's the way I look at 12 it.

13 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: Norman.

14 MR. SMITH: I'm glad it's those Howard 15 County lawyers or Montgomery County lawyers, because 16 usually where we go, it's those Baltimore lawyers 17 which give all the problems.

18 These are the things that we're going to 19 take back to the commission, and as Judge Battaglia
20 said, please feel free to write, e-mail, call Judge 21 Battaglia, any of the other judges, her chambers, 22 Judge Bell, and anything that comes up. We have 23 gotten letters and e-mails after these meetings that 24 people ruminate about these subjects and come up 25 with something, and we include them in the minutes.

1 So I certainly encourage you to do so.

2 Whether judges' speeches will be cleared
3 by the Administration Office of the Courts is 4 clarified, that's certainly nothing mandatory. I 5 think that the notion here is that this would be 6 something that judges could do in the case that they 7 may be worried about the content and whether they 8 should give the speech.

9 We've heard this comment also throughout 10 other counties, and I think it's something that 11 we're going to have to really take up with the 12 commission, the notion that, can you really change 13 people. The -- we may be going too fast. We may 14 be, you know, looking at a problem that, as one 15 person said, is perhaps one more perception. That 16 ever since lawyers were allowed to advertise, and 17 we've seen some pretty egregious advertising 18 examples as we've traveled around the state, maybe 19 we've gone too fast. The sanctions may be too much.
20 We may revisit some of this in January because we've 21 heard this notion that -- that we don't want to be 22 too fast to punish ourselves.

23 Mentoring is available from the -- which 24 is something that we definitely do have to 25 publicize.

1 Young associates are under pressure to 2 bill, but perhaps the pressure should be put on the 3 senior partners in those large firms in order to 4 encourage professionalism rather than just more
5 billing, but that's what they do. They have a 6 client who has a million dollars to spend, they're 7 going to tell them to spend it. I just had to make 8 that comment. Sorry. It would be nice if they 9 could.

10 JUDGE CATHELL: I would hope that the 11 senior partners would never publicly admit that.

12 MR. SMITH: And they would never 13 publicly admit that, but I would be surprised if 14 there's anyone in this room that doesn't see that.
15 That when there's money to be spent, they'll spend 16 it.

17 Fewer problems in small counties. I think 18 we find that not only in the law, but in every 19 enterprise. I come from a tiny town in Oklahoma, 20 and I think that things are much different there 21 than sometimes in the larger city where I now live.
22 Judges -- that's just in there.

23 Judges invited to attend political 24 functions. Can they do it? Are we recommending a 25 change? This is something, along with the other

1 question about judges, that we really need to 2 clarify and probably will. How much can a judge do?
3 How much are we clarifying? What changes are we 4 requiring or asking for the Judicial Canons is 5 something that I think we'll definitely take back 6 because the comment we've heard from several judges 7 here is that judges want to be more involved in the 8 community, and the change in the Canon is welcome, 9 and the clarification of what can be done would also 10 be welcomed.

11 New proposed Rule 1-342, does this preempt
12 the doctrine of contempt, which is another question 13 that we've heard, and what will be the new process 14 implications of that? Definitely something that 15 will go back before the commission because that has 16 not been fleshed out.

17 Will the sanctions that are proposed
18 reflect on the client? Will the client have to pay?
19 Is the client driving this? How would you know 20 whether the client is driving this or not? Federal 21 Judge Legg, who is a member of the commission, just 22 this last weekend, I read an opinion by him that had 23 to do with attorney's fees and prejudgment interest, 24 not professionalism. But it turns out to be sort of 25 a -- an opinion on professionalism that, really, I

1 assume punished a client because Judge Legg said in 2 the opinion, "If you're going to defend an 3 indefensible case," and this seemed to be quite an 4 indefensible case, "with a scorched earth policy and 5 come out at the other end, you're going to pay 6 prejudgment interest under federal common law." And 7 the particular statute under which he decided this 8 allowed attorney's fees, and you're going to pay
9 attorney's fees. And it seemed to me, we don't know 10 what the client asked for that, but I would not want 11 to be that lawyer going back to the client to say, 12 "You remember that when you told me that you 13 didn't -- that you would rather pay me than pay 14 them, that all you wanted to do was inflict pain, 15 well, this is what you get to do now."

16 The pro se litigants, how to do deal with 17 this is something that I think it's perhaps a little 18 bit beyond our commission and perhaps one for Judge 19 Green, but it's one that we've heard a lot.

20 Once again, are we going too fast, too 21 much? Should this be -- take a slower road such as 22 the pro bono has?

23 Another disciplinary level. Are we 24 creating another disciplinary level? Once again, I 25 think this goes back to the sanctions and the due

1 process considerations that we've had heard a lot,
2 and I think we will.

3 And will zealous -- is the notion of 4 zealous representation in conflict with what we're 5 doing here? It's something we've talked about and 6 we probably will talk about again.

7 And we will take note that a -- although 8 we're not sure what lawyers we were talking about,
9 the informal vote on mandatory sanctions came out I 10 think is a zero.

11 JUDGE CATHELL: I would point out,
12 especially I think with Bill, that before any of 13 this finally gets done, the Court of Appeals is 14 going to be voting on it. He'll be acting in a 15 legislative capacity. So there will be -- the 16 hearing, whenever it is, will be open.

17 If the bar association, any bar
18 association that's position is pro or con, they 19 should send the bar president up. If any individual 20 wants to be heard, we get these long lists and 21 people stand up and speak, and there will be an 22 opportunity for any of you to speak directly to the 23 Court of Appeals before it becomes final.

24 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: All right. Are there 25 anything else you would like us to take back or any

1 suggestions that you would like us to consider?

2 Okay. Judge Eschenburg.

3 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: First of all, we're 4 all a little disappointed that Judge Bell didn't 5 make it. He was planning on making it right up 6 until Friday I believe.

7 JUDGE CATHELL: I'm not disappointed.
8 I've heard his jokes.

9 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Everyone but Judge
10 Cathell, just to clarify. However, we're grateful
11 that Judge Battaglia, Norman and Bill and everyone 12 else involved made the presentation.

13 I do want you to take back to Judge Bell, 14 as you can see, we are a small bar compared to many 15 bar associations, we have just shy of 100 percent 16 attendance here. It's probably the free lunch, but 17 be that as it may, on that subject, the lunch is at 18 the Country Club, the Snow Hill Country Club
19 immediately following this meeting. We hope to see 20 all of you there because we paid for all of you to 21 be there, and we hate to waste all that food.

22 And finally, I just want to remind you
23 that the Worcester County Bar Association's eighth 24 annual Autumn afternoon continuing legal education 25 course, as has already been alluded to, is set for

1 Friday, November 10th, 2006, at noon at Fager's 2 Island. In addition to what's already on the 3 agenda, I understand there's kind of a provocative 4 issue that's going to be coming up involving what 5 should a judge -- should a judge consider in 6 sentencing that which has been excluded in the 7 sentencing guidelines. Did I say that correctly?

8 MR. WIMBROW: Included. Included. In 9 other words, can a sentencing judge consider a 10 defendant's record in a guidelines case because the 11 guidelines have already considered the record?

12 JUDGE CATHELL: There are going to be 13 other fireworks, too.

14 MR. WIMBROW: Oh, yeah. That's in 15 addition to what's on the brochure.

16 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: It looks like it is 17 an interesting agenda.

18 JUDGE CATHELL: Pete's going to try to 19 roast them.

20 MR. WIMBROW: Judge?

21 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: So we, of course,
22 encourage all of you to attend. Yes.

23 MR. WIMBROW: And I would also like to 24 let everyone know that Judge Mary Ellen Barbera will 25 be on the panel as well. And tomorrow is the last

1 opportunity to pay at the reduced rate.

2 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: Judge Battaglia,
3 Norman, Bill, I want to thank you.

4 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: I want to thank you,
5 Judge Eschenburg, because I know that you and Judge
6 Groton were very instrumental in getting people
7 here, and I want to thank the rest of the judges.

8 JUDGE ESCHENBURG: We just have a great 9 bar.

10 JUDGE BATTAGLIA: I want to thank all of 11 you for coming and participating in this. It really 12 is very important for all of us to address, and as 13 Chief Judge Bell said, that it's a commitment that 14 we all made and we all manifest the highest degree 15 of professionalism, so thank you. I'll see you at 16 lunch. Thank you.

17 (Whereupon, the meeting concluded.)
