

2nd Edition 1804
No 309

110/67A

Amesbury August 29 1794

The commander in chief feels peculiar satisfaction in offering his testimony to the merit of the militia of this State great numbers of whom both officers and private men have manifested their Fidelity and attachment to the laws and to public order By making a voluntary tender of their services in the detachment required by the President of the United States which such a spirit continues to actuate our Citizens The national tranquility commensurate to long endangered and the general safety and happiness founded on their best

110/67B

Raise the virtue of the people will medno

Other support

Mr J Lee