FOREWORD

The task of compiling a directory of the colored professional, clerical, skilled and business interests of Baltimore which shall serve, at the same time, as a manual of useful information, in general, involves an endless amount of labor. This present issue of the Directory is more complete and is, therefore, much more useful than any of the former ones.

The work itself furnishes a striking example of what one can accomplish, in spite of serious handicap, if he will set out with industry and determination to do some definite, constructive thing.

Mr. Robert W. Coleman, the compiler, has labored under the serious disadvantage of having been well-nigh totally blind for some years—an affliction which has disheartened many otherwise strong men; however, he has gone to work at his task with cheerfulness and with an undaunted spirit which show him to possess a marvelous reserve of industry and courage.

He has, undoubtedly, come into possession of this constructive industry naturally. He is a Washington (D. C.) boy by birth. His father was one of the prominent business men of color of the city a few years back. He is related to some of the most prominent men who have taken a leading part in the constructive development of the city, among them being Judge Robert H. Terrell, of the Municipal Court of the city. He is a graduate of the Washington Business High School.

Mr. Coleman came to Baltimore some years ago, adopted this city as his home, married Miss Mary Mason of Baltimore, settled down to rear a family and contribute his share to the community welfare. He is the father of six lovely girls, the two older, Misses Daisy and Dorothy, assist their father each year in compiling this book.

The Directory, with very favorable comment, has been placed on the shelves of the Library of Congress, among the Moreland Collection in the Carnegie Library at Howard University and other libraries.

I am sure that this issue will commend itself upon its merits, not only to the people of Baltimore, but to people anywhere seeking the valuable information it possesses, particularly with reference to the professional, clerical, skilled and business interests of Baltimore City.

PROFESSOR THOMAS W. TURNER,
Howard University.

An Expression From Washington

By
JUDGE E. M. HEWLETT

My Dear Coleman:

I have carefully examined the proof sheets of your professional, clerical, skilled and business directory of the colored people of Baltimore and Washington.

When I remember that you are a son of Sergeant Alexander B. Coleman, who was commissioned by the State of Massachusetts to recruit the gallant Fifty-fourth Regiment in the War of the Rebellion, and who performed the services so well that he was complimented by the Legislature of that State; and when I remember his success as a business man in the city of Washington for many years after the war, and the keen interest he took in all things tending toward the uplift of the race, I am not surprised that you follow so closely in his footsteps and keep up the tradition of the family.

In producing this book you have certainly done the race a most unique and valuable service. It is in itself the strongest argument against the inability of the race to engage in successful competition with the other races, in the business world.

One is astounded when he learns from your valuable production the great number of men and women of the race who are engaged in professional, clerical, skilled and business occupations in Baltimore and Washington alone. The same being true of other large cities. It proves conclusively that the color of the skin plays no part in measuring the ability of people in any walk of life, and shows beyond doubt that it is brains and push, and these alone, that count for success in life, something in which no race has a monopoly.

Your production is peculiarly valuable at this time, when our country is engaged in a war for world democracy, and at the same time is failing to see that equal and exact justice is accorded the colored man. Peculiarly valuable because you deal, not in fancies but in facts; giving names and addresses; dealing not with those of the past, but of the present. This effort of yours will do more than any thing else to instruct the American people, as to the achievements of the colored people along all lines, and thereby create a sentiment in favor of justice and fair play, where such sentiment does not exist.

This work will take its place in the Congressional Library, and there be preserved as a reference for future historians; thereby linking your name, for all time, with the names of other benefactors of man.

You, my friend, are entitled to the lasting gratitude of the race.

BY THE EDITOR

One would not imagine the work entailed in the compiling a book of this character, especially for me, as my time is so divided in various lines of business, in order to satisfy my current demands. I have tried to establish a method of a real effective medium of advertisement, and at the same time to collect a Directory of the colored professional, clerical, skilled and business people. I aim to uplift men and to give them credit for what they do. I am certain I have not reached all of them, but owing to the fact that such an undertaking is so broad in its scope, that it would entail a great expense and a number of clerical assistants to make it complete, therefore I ask that the public will be charitable in their criticisms.

I wish to thank my many friends, both white and colored, for their kind favors in assisting me in the compiling of this book.

Very respectfully,

ROBT. W. COLEMAN.

N. B.—I kindly solicit your subscription. I also wish to acknowledge, with thanks and appreciation, the check from Dr. Wormley, of Washington, D. C.

PUBLIC OPINION

NOTE OF COMMENDATION.

By the Rev. Dr. Ernest Lyon, D. D., L.L. D., Former Minister to Liberia.

The author of this useful directory, Mr. Robert W. Coleman, deserves not only the confidence and sympathy of a generous public, but the gratitude of his race. The fact that he is suffering from the impairment of sight will help to further ingratiate him in public favor. Many men, thus afflicted, would have been content to be a recipient of charities; but this young man of genius and energy refused to beg his way through life. He conceived the idea that a directory of the professional, clerical, skilled and business people of the colored race in the city of Baltimore was a necessity; and so it was, for up to this time, there was no such institution for accurately locating the business and professional men operating in the city. This idea readily commended itself to a number of well disposed men and women, who immediately saw an opportunity to aid an afflicted, but worthy, young and struggling man to independence and usefulness. The first edition attracted State wide attention and commendation from prominent men among both races, and now Coleman's Directory is a necessity, and among the indispensables of every public and business institution. I, therefore, take delight and pleasure in commending not only the book, but the spirit of manhood and self-reliance, which prompted the author in his effort to maintain himself against physical complications. Mr. Coleman has been appointed a member of the Colored Division of the Maryland Council of Defense.

Dear Mr. Coleman:

I write to say that the National Business League is always pleased to make note of such enterprises as you are fostering. I hope that your Business Directory of Baltimore may receive the cordial support of the business and professional classes of Baltimore. The circulation of your booklet should prove incalculably helpful in fostering race pride, and at the same time bring about that encouragement of negro business so devoutly to be welcomed.

Yours very sincerely,

You are deserving of all praise for the enterprise you have shown in getting out each year a full and comprehensive directory of the Colored Professional, Clerical, Skilled and Business men and Women of your city. A like publication ought to be gotten out in all of the large business centers of the country. It would be largely to the advantage of the race in the commercial world.

In placing the Directory before the public, you not only advertise the prominent people of the race and their profession, but you bring them in closer touch with one another. The Directory should be found in every home.

Your undertaking, in the face of so many undertakings, deserves encouragement and the co-operation of all.

With best wishes, I am yours respectfully,

CARRINGTON L. DAVIS.

Carrington L. Davis was born at Chattolane, Green Spring Valley, Baltimore County, Md., August 27, 1879. Having received his early education in the public schools of Baltimore County, he earned his A. B. degrees from Morgan College and Harvard University, and has pursued courses leading to the Degree of Master of Arts at Columbia University. Mr. Davis served, creditably, as Head of the Department of Greek, in Morgan College, from 1904 to 1907, from which position he resigned to accept a teachership of Latin and German in the local High School. Here, his work was of such an efficient character that he was made Head of the Department of Foreign Languages. In 1917, he was made Vice-Principal.

Mr. Davis is interested in all movements for the public good, but, being a thorough student, naturally things of a classical or cultural nature would most appeal to him. He is a member of the Harvard Classical Club, the Classical Association of the United States and Maryland, and President of the local Booklovers Club. He has written several pamphlets, some of which are:

"Transformation in Educational Ideals."

"The Negro in American Literature."

"An Interpretation of Faust for Everyday Life." and

"The Negro and the European War."

James H. DENNIS

THE CUT RATE FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

1303 Presstman St. Phone, Mad. 1084.

I have plenty of goods on hand, and my aim and object is to help the public in their struggle with this high cost. I have the name of giving the best shipping funerals at reasonable prices from Baltimore to Cape Charles. The high cost of living is helping others; my low cost of funerals to the public is helping my business. Limousines and other things pertaining to the business of my own are at your disposal at all times. That is one reason why I make no advance in prices.

COSMOPOLITAN CHORAL SOCIETY.

The Cosmopolitan Choral Society, the outgrowth of the work of Mme. E. Azalia Hackley for the Y. M. C. A., March, 1917, was organized after the Community Song Festival with a membership of 127 persons. The object of the society is to study folk-songs, and Choral work generally, and to foster a love for singing.

Since being organized two concerts have been given. Mr. Harry Burleigh, accompanied by Mr. Melville Charlton, was presented to Baltimore's public June, 1917.

Mr. Roland Hays and Miss Lillian Evans were the soloists at a second concert, December, 1917, their accompanist being Miss Beatrice Lewis.

March 19, 1918, a visit was made to Camp Meade, which was a most enjoyable trip for the members. The "boys" of the Camp expressed themselves as pleased with our work of entertainment, which was absolutely gratuitous.

Dr. Charles E. Stewart, the director, was teacher at Greensboro. N. C., A. and T. College and also at Wilberforce University, where he taught piano and vocal lessons for several years. Besides experience and skill, Dr. Stewart brings to his work love and devotion to the social life of the community, and his services to the organization are freely given.

The officers of the society are:

Dr. Chas. E. Stewart, Director.
Miss Clara M. Thompson, Secretary.
Miss Camilla Gwathney, Assistant Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COLORED DIVISION OF THE MARYLAND COUNCIL OF DEFENSE.

DR. ERNEST LYON.

That the public may have some definite idea as to the work and activities of the Colored Division of the Maryland Council of Defense, we call attention to the following definite work done by the council since its organization:

1—During the two Liberty Loan campaigns our Council was requested to assume the work of interesting the colored people in the loan. The magnificent results have been published in the daily papers, showing that 1,000,000 dollars worth of bonds were purchased by them in Maryland.

2—When representatives of the I. W. W. were in the city of Baltimore for the purpose of creating discontent among the colored laborers, in order to impede the progress of governmental contracts, Mr. A. S. Goldsborough called upon the Council of Defense to counteract the efforts of the I. W. W. agents. The results of the Council, on file in the office of Mr. Goldsborough, showed that in less than twenty-four hours after notification one hundred and fifty ministers were warning their congregations against the country's enemies.

3—When the Red Cross membership campaign was on, the campaign committee called on the Council to conduct the campaign among the colored people. The results of our efforts in this line were publicly acknowledged in the newspapers by the General Red Cross Membership Campaign Committee and showed that about 10,000 colored members were enrolled.

4—The United States Government War Savings Committee, under the direction of Mr. W. Bladen Lowndes, is at present conducting a campaign among the colored people through our Council, with headquarters located at 608 N. Eutaw street. Already ten thousands of dollars of stamps have been sold through this office.

5—On February 22, when four hundred colored soldiers from Camp Meade, under the direction of white officers, came to the city for a benefit entertainment at the Richmond Market Armory, our Council received them at the station, escorted them through the city, then to Metropolitan M. E. Church on Orchard street, where the Women's Section of our Council served them a luncheon and otherwise looked after their entertainment during the time intervening between their arrival in the city and the time for the benefit at Richmond Market Armory. The officers of the company gladly accepted the hospitality of the Woman's Department and lunched with the company.

6—On January 16, a state-wide meeting of the city and county commissioners was held, the results of which were most gratifying and stimulating.

(a). At 11 A. M. the male commissioners from the city and counties assembled in Sharp Street M. E. Church. The County Commissioners made gratifying reports of the activities in the counties, the Chairman of the Colored Division gave a summary of the work accomplished by the Council. An inspiring address was delivered by former Governor Phillips Lee Goldsborough.

(b). At 3 P. M., the Women's Section, under Miss Ida R. Cummings, held its session. The reports submitted by the various departments and clubs affiliated with the Women's Section showed that this section of the Colored Council of Defense is engaged in every phase of war activities, including Red Cross work, knitting, food conservation, education, etc. The Women's Section was addressed by Mr. Osborne I. Yellott, representing the United States Government War Savings Committee.

(c). At night a mammoth patriotic meeting was held at Albaugh's Theatre and was addressed by His Excellency, Emerson C. Harrington, and Mr. Emmett J. Scott, Special Assistant of Mr. Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, with special authority to speak for the United States Secretary of War.

7—Our Council has been recently called upon by the medical staff of the colored hospital at Camp Meade to construct in connection with the hospital a sun parlor for the health of colored soldiers recovering from pneumonia. The amount needed has been raised and the work will be completed under governmental supervision.

8—The Hon. Francis M. Jencks, President of the Maryland Branch of the National Defense League, called upon the Council to inaugurate for colored men of draft age a school of instruction in United States military war training. Our Council has launched this class at Richmond Market Armory, and one hundred and seventy-five or two hundred colored men were trained by United States army officers twice a week, so that these colored men of draft age were prepared to assume the duties of non-commissioned officers when mustered into camp.

9—Through the efforts of the Council and its allied organizations, two pianos have been furnished the Y. M. C. A. building at Camp Meade and the instruments for a regimental brass band have been provided. Thousands of comfort kits, sweaters, cigars, tobacco, wristlets and socks have been furnished the soldiers by the Council.

10—Aside from the above specific engagements of the Council the work of organizing the counties by districts, the arrangements for meetings in the city and counties, the supplying of speakers through the Speakers' Bureau, the many requests that have come for information and help of various kinds from colored soldiers for their dependencies, have involved an amount of labor and correspondence beyond the expectation of the executive officers of our Council. The work has proven arduous and exacting beyond our thought. It has imposed upon the executive officers of the Council duties and responsibilities that have been a severe tax on their patriotism. No officer of the Council receives any compensation. The vast amount of work done, as has been outlined, is inspired by love for country, and the Council rejoices in the privilege to serve.

This was the greatest affair that was ever pulled off in Baltimore, taking in almost four thousand dollars in one night, and was held at the Lyric, the largest Opera House in the South. On this occasion there were over four thousand five hundred admitted and more than a thousand turned away who could not get standing room.

JOSEPH P. EVANS.

Ill. Evans is serving his seventh year as Grand Master of the M. W. United Grand Lodge F. & A. Masons of Maryland and jurisdiction. Mr. Evans filled other minor positions in the Grand Lodge prior to his election as Grand Master. He is also Treasurer-General H. E. of the United Supreme Council Scottish Rite Masons for the Southern jurisdiction and Deputy for the Valley of Maryland, Past High Priest of Mt. Zion Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and is Generalissimo of Rising Sun Commandery No. 1. Brother Evans belongs to all departments of the craft, including all the lady departments, and is an all around worker. To show his popularity, all of the departments tendered him one of the grandest receptions on Monday night, May 27th, at Sharp Street Memorial M. E. Church that was ever presented to any man of color in the city's history. He was presented with a large engrossed set of resolutions, signed by the W. Masters of the forty-four subordinate lodges in the State, which was handsomely encased in a heavy mahogany frame that would excite the envy of a Theodore Roosevelt, and also with a large handsome wardrobe trunk. Over one thousand people turned out on this intensely hot night to do honor to this leader and builder of organizations. Mr. Evans is the Supreme Ruler of the Order of Galilean Fishermen, serving his fourth term. He is also connected with many other secret organizations. He was a National Delegate in 1912, and stood by Roosevelt from start to finish. He is interested in all the movements of his race and the nation's good.

1203 DRUID HILL AVENUE. BALTIMORE, MD.

JUDGE E. M. HEWLETT.

Judge E. M. Hewlett, one of the ablest lawyers the race has produced, is the son of the late Professor A. Molyneaux Hewlett, who was Professor of Physical Training at Harvard University from 1852 until his death in 1872.

Judge Hewlett is a graduate of Boston University, and has practiced law in Boston and Washington since 1877. In 1890 he was appointed by President Benjamin Harrison a Judge in the District of Columbia, of what is now the Municipal Court, and was re-appointed by Presidents Cleveland, McKinley and Roosevelt, serving sixteen years. Judge Hewlett had the united support of Democratic and Republican members of the bar, and was pronounced the best Judge holding a commission, never having been reversed but once by the Upper Court during this whole period. He is now practicing his profession.

He has appeared before the Supreme Court of the United States oftener than all the other colored lawyers of the country put together, having ten cases to his credit. In the case of Gibson vs. Mississippi, reported in 162-U. S., he is complimented by Judge Harlan in his printed opinion. It was Judge Hewlett who caused the Sheriff of Chattanooga, Tenn., to be adjudged in contempt by the Supreme Court of the United States, and then arrested and sent to jail in Washington, for allowing Ed. Johnson to be lynched, after he, Hewlett, had obtained a writ of error. This was the first time the Court had ever had a contempt matter of this nature to deal with.

He is considered one of the most eloquent lawyers at the District Bar, and has ten murder cases to his credit, with the distinction of never having had a man hanged. Judge Hewlett has also appeared in several important cases before the U. S. Court of Claims. The race has produced no abler nor more persistent defender of its rights than Judge Hewlett.

GEORGE E. FREY

Puissant Lieutenant Grand Commander of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America. Mr. Frey is a well known caterer and business man of Baltimore. He previously had charge of the Maryland College for a number of years.

JULIUS S. CARROLL.

Julius S. Carroll, pastor of Centennial Methodist Episcopal Church, is the son of the late Rev. Henry A. Carroll, who for a number of years was a prominent member of the Washington Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. Carroll was born in Baltimore. He attended the public schools of Alexandria, Va., and Washington, D. C. He also attended Howard University. In 1901 he graduated from Morgan College with the degree of Bachelor of Arts and in 1906 from Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J., with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Rev. Carroll also graduated from the Theological Department of Morgan College. While pursuing the course at Drew Theological Seminary Rev. Carroll had charge of a mission work in New York City. He has served both in the country and the city. La Plata, Holly Run and Hullsville, and Chase Circuits had him as their pastor. He served as pastor also at Sparrows Point, Maryland; Wheeling, West Va.; Charleston, West Va., where a beautiful church was erected during his pastorate, and Clarksburg, West Va. Rev. Carroll is now serving his second year at Centennial Church. It is quite a coincidence that forty odd years ago Rev. Henry A. Carroll was pastor of Centennial Church, the church then being called Dallas Street, and for four years prior to Rev. Julius Carroll's coming to Centennial his uncle, the Rev. N. M. Carroll, D. D., was pastor of the church.

In 1905 Rev. Carroll married Miss Florence May Dungee, a teacher in the Baltimore Public Schools and who is a graduate of Howard University with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Mrs. Carroll has shown her adaptability in the sphere of a minister's wife by the able manner in which she works in her husband's church and the community. In 1916 Mrs. Carroll represented the Washington Conference Woman's Missionary Society at the national meeting of the society at Columbus, Ohio.

MRS. GEORGE E. FREY
President of the Patriotic League of Maryland.

The Patriotic League was organized April 23, 1917. It was the first organization to begin relief work in the present war, co-operating with the Preparedness and Survey Commission, of which Mrs. Edward Shoemaker is chairman. Mrs. Frey was one of five appointed from the league as a committee to serve as a sub-committee on the Governor of Maryland's commission. On May 21, 1917, Miss Sallie Carter, President of the Maryland League for National Defence, appointed Mrs. George E. Frey as President of the Maryland League for National Defence, the organization for work in the American fund for French wounded, making pajamas, etc., to be sent to France. On October 1st, a personal letter was received from Governor Harrington addressed to Mrs. Frey commending her work and that of the organization. On November 4th, 1917, Mrs. Frey was appointed by Governor Harrington a member of the Woman's Section (colored division), Maryland Council of Defence. The league carried 550 pairs of gloves to the soldiers at Camp Meade. On December 14th Mrs. Frey was appointed chairman of knitting units of the Army and Navy League of the United States. On November 16th, 1917, 150 comfort kits were sent to Captain N. R. Spencer of the First Separate Company at Camp Anniston, Alabama.

The basketball benefit given for the Three Hundred Sixty-eighth Infantry at Richmond Market Armory, on February 12, 1917, was presented with the neat sum of $400 by its president, Mrs. Frey, to help augment the board. Twenty-five dollars was also contributed toward the sun parlor and $50 to the Citizens' Committee to purchase basketball suits for the soldiers.

The names of the officers of the Woman's Patriotic League are:

Mrs. George E. Frey, President, 1018 Linden Ave.

Mrs. George F. McMechen, Vice-President, 1834 McCulloh St.

Mrs. Irene Savoy, Treasurer, 523 Mosher St.

Mrs. Howard E. Payne, Secretary, 1006 Linden Ave.

Miss Clementine Thomas, Cor. Secretary, 635 W. Lafayette Ave.

Miss Lottie Berry, Assistant Treasurer, 407 N. Caroline St.

REV. DR. W. SAMPSON BROOKS.

The above is a cut of the Rev. Dr. W. Sampson Brooks, the distinguished pastor of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore. Dr. Brooks came to this struggling church in the spring of 1917 and immediately set to work to bring it out of the mire into which it had fallen, largely because of its great debt. By his kindly manner, dignified bearing and wonderful knowledge of human nature, coupled with pulpit eloquence seldom equalled, he has so endeared himself to the people of Baltimore that he has won the whole-hearted support of ministers and laymen of all denominations for the cause he is in this city to represent. During his first year at Bethel he has succeeded in raising upwards of $30,000, and has had his Sunday services attended by the largest crowds in the history of the church.

MR. ALBERT JOHNSON.

Albert Johnson, contractor, was born in Cambridge, Md., 60 years ago. He is a self-made man, having never attended school a day in his life. Married Miss Eliza Keene, of Cambridge, 28 years ago. Came to Baltimore at the age of 35 years, and established a contracting business which is second to none in this city. Has done work on the Baltimore Bargain House, Maryland Art and Historical Museum, and built the arches for the Centennial Celebration in 1914.

Mr. Johnson's business is a very prosperous one, employing about 30 or 35 men, and paying to skilled colored laborers from $300 to $350 weekly. He has three children, Mrs. Alverta Nickens, Lottie Spriggs and Fred Johnson. Mrs. Spriggs is employed in her father's office as bookkeeper, and Fred is general manager.

Mr. Johnson is active in many business enterprises and lodges, and is president of the Trustee Board of John Wesley M. E. Church, of which Dr. Ernest Lyon is pastor. Mr. Johnson is indeed a wonderful character and deserves great credit for maintaining such a prosperous business establishment.

WILLIAM H. BISHOP.

Mr. William H. Bishop, for many years a clerk in the Internal Revenue Department of this city and a descendant of one of the most prominent families in Maryland, died at his home in Catonsville, February 11, 1918. He had been in failing health for the past year.

With the death of Mr. Bishop, Maryland loses one of its authorities on the income tax. He had been a clerk in the Internal Revenue office for 25 years, and was the head of the income tax division. He was one of the most competent and best informed clerks in the service throughout the country. Not only did he know the law, but the regulations as well, and for years had been responsible for the more arduous work and accounts of the office, and none rendered more efficient and faithful service.

Mr. Bishop was at one time very prominent in the social life of the city, and he has always had a host of friends, both in and out of the city, who will always remember his dignified, kindly manner.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Fannie S. Bishop, a sister, Mrs. C. B. Tucker, and two brothers, Mr. John A. Bishop of Baltimore and the Rev. R. C. Bishop of New York.

MR. E. B. TAYLOR.

While Mr. Taylor's business as caterer will of necessity be hard hit by the war, he is as busy as ever, serving in the following capacities, viz.: By appointment of the President one of Maryland's Four-minute Men; by commission of the Governor, a member of the original twenty-five colored members of the Council of Defence; by appointment of the Mayor, manager of the House of Reformation and Instruction for Colored Boys, to represent the city. He is also head of the Red Cross for the State, a member of the War Savings Committee for Baltimore City, a member of the Recreation Committee of the Soldiers' Committee on Camp Activities, and one of the committee of three of the League for National Defence, having charge of the Draftees' Drills, fitting out men for non-commissioned posts when they go to camp. These are all we remember now, except the chairmanship of the executive committee of the Alumni of the Colored High School.

JOHN W. LEWIS.

The life of Mr. John W. Lewis, the subject of the present sketch, perhaps illustrates better than any long praise of him could possibly do, what rugged character, strong common sense, unyielding faith and consistent industry can do to overcome the handicap of the lack of early opportunities.

Mr. Lewis was born in Caroline county, Virginia, in 1868. His opportunity for formal schooling was extremely limited, the sum total of such training being about three months. In 1894, when he was twenty-four years of age, he came to Washington a tramp with Coxey's Army, secured a job as a hod carrier, at which work he was employed for the next fifteen years.

Being possessed of the elements of leadership, Mr. Lewis organized, in 1907, The Laborers' Mercantile Realty Company. This was successful, and soon the public came to realize the true worth of the man, who had come to make Washington his home. Not satisfied with this enterprise, however, he organized, in 1913, The Industrial Savings Bank, an institution which now has three thousand depositors, with savings amounting to $137,682.25.

The whole community now appreciates Mr. Lewis as an enterprising, public spirited, progressive citizen, who reflects credit both on himself and the community in which he lives.

BISHOP JOHN HURST.

Rt. Rev. John Hurst, Presiding Bishop of the Florida Conference, African Methodist Episcopal Church, and resident bishop of Baltimore District.

Probably no man in Baltimore has the confidence of the public in general more than has Bishop Hurst. In conjunction with his arduous duties as presiding officer of the Florida Conference of his denomination, he takes a keen interest in civic affairs and is always in the forefront of any movement that has for its object the betterment of mankind. In a recent address before one of the conferences, the Bishop took occasion to forcefully criticize the conditions affecting the negro in the South. The address was generally regarded as one of the most fearless expositions of conditions ever expressed by a colored man south of the Mason and Dixon Line.

Bishop John Hurst is one of the best known churchmen in the country. He is a member of a number of bodies, including the American Political and Social Science Association and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. In the last named body he is a member of the Executive Committee, as well as serving as a member of the Spingarn Medal Committee.

Bishop Hurst owes much of his success to his charming wife, Mrs. K. Bertha Hurst. Their only son, Benoni Price Hurst, is an interne at Howard University. Bishop and Mrs. Hurst reside at 1808 McCulloh street.

REPORT OF THE COLORED DIVISION OF THE MARYLAND COUNCIL OF DEFENSE.

DR. ERNEST LYON.

Doctor Ernest Lyon is one of the leading ministers in the city of Baltimore. He is pastor of John Wesley, an old historic and influential church. His early life was spent in New Orleans University. He graduated in '88, classical department, New Orleans University; later A. M. by post-graduate work; took Theology, special course, Union Theological Seminary, N. Y.; received the degree of D. D. from Wiley University, Texas; L.L. D. from Liberia College, Monrovia, Liberia. Entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church from the Louisiana Annual Conference. After serving in that conference as pastor for a period of years, as Sunday School agent of the conference, and as special agent for the Freedmen's Aid Society, he was transferred to the pastorate of St. Mark's M. E. Church, New York City, then located on Forty-eighth street. During his administration the church now on Fifty-third street was secured. Having completed the itinerary limit, he was transferred to John Wesley M. E. Church, Baltimore, Md. While in Baltimore, he served as Professor of Biblical Theology in Morgan College, and founded the Maryland Industrial and Agricultural Institute for the education of colored youths, at Laurel, Md. President Roosevelt appointed him Minister Resident and Consul General of the United States at Monrovia, Liberia, to succeed Dr. Crossland, who resigned. He remained at this post nearly eight years; during his administration the American government was induced to send a commission to inquire into Liberian conditions, which opened up a new era for Liberia. At the end of his second term he resigned the post. His services for his own government were so satisfactory to the Liberians that he was induced to accept, from the President of Liberia, the appointment to represent the Republic of Liberia in the United States as its Consul General, which post he now fills. Doctor Lyon is also financial agent for the Caroline Donovan Industrial and Agricultural School and became the custodian, five years ago, of $65,000 accrued balance of the treasury of the American Colonization Society. While Minister to Liberia he traveled extensively in Africa, especially into the interior of Liberia, and also in England and Europe. He is a member of the National Educational Association, President of the Baltimore M. E. Preachers' Meeting, a member of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, of the West African Society, London, England, a Knight of the Order of African Redemption. He is a thirty-third degree Mason, editor of the Commonwealth, a weekly journal; chairman of the Maryland Council of Defense, colored division, a body commissioned by the Governor of the State to aid in the defense of the nation. He is director of the colored branch United States Thrift and War Savings, and one of the special orators recently appointed by the War Department to serve the nation by enlightening public opinion as to the war aims of the government. Dr. Lyon enjoys the unique distinction of having been sent to his post, while Minister to Liberia, on a war vessel. He was the guest of Rear Admiral Shadwick and dined with him on his flag ship Brooklyn, and at one time entertained and looked after the physical comfort of the men of the cruisers Birmingham, Solem and Chester. Dr. Lyon is a member of the National Association for the Advancement of the Colored Race and a member of the Negro National Business League.

W. E. B. DUBOIS, PH. D.

Editor of The Crisis.

Dr. W. E. B. DuBois recently celebrated his fiftieth anniversary. The Crisis for February contained a short autobiography of him. As a mark of appreciation, a few of his friends tendered him a testimonial banquet in New York.

Dr. DuBois received his Ph.D. from Harvard University; studied at the leading universities of Europe; held a Fellowship in the University of Pennsylvania, during which time he published "The Philadelphia Negro," the first scientific discussion on the American Negro problem. He subsequently held a professorship at Wilberforce and at Atlanta universities. At Atlanta University he instituted, under the auspices of the Atlanta Conference, that cycle of studies pertaining to the trades, home life and religion, schools and colleges of the American Negro, which made it inexcusable for any one thereafter to express mere opinions upon these matters.

As a writer and lecturer, Dr. DuBois is known on both continents. His "Souls of Black Folk" is said to be one of the best books written in America during a half century. One of his most recent books, "The Negro," shows the author's power of coordination and graphic representation. After reading this little book one can never again doubt the historical significance of the African Negro nor fail to respect his gifts and contributions to the world civilization.

As an orator, Dr. DuBois is always eagerly heard. For twenty years or more he has held the platform in nearly every important town in this country and in many cities of Europe. He is always prepared. His message is always a new phase of the world problem. His language is beautiful, his logic unanswerable, his delivery pleasing.

It would be difficult to decide which of his many contributions to science, to letters, to the solution of social problems is most important. Not the least important of his labors was the founding of The Crisis, which is not merely the chief organ of the N. A. A. C. P., but is the voice of 12,000,000 black folks, who look to it for information, for inspiration and for guidance. "Out of nothing" Dr. DuBois created this remarkable magazine which has already made its way into the hands of one hundred thousand readers. The standards of the magazine are the standards of the editor—truth and art without compromise, unpurchasable.

M. A. H.

MR. EMMETT J. SCOTT.

Mr. Emmett J. Scott occupies a most unique place in the history of this country. He is one of the foremost men of the nation and one of the great leaders of the Negro Race in this country. He has been in the public's eye for over twenty years, and by a peculiar combination of genius and common sense, supplemented by intellectual training, travel and contact, has won for himself fame and renown. He is, perhaps, the best known man in the country today, and has the confidence of his own as well as of the other race. He has held many prominent places upon influential committees, and has been upon many confidential errands for the welfare of his people. Besides being the Secretary of Tuskegee, the now famous institution founded by the late Booker T. Washington, he is also Secretary of the Negro National Business League, one of the most influential groups of colored people in the country. He was the only colored member of the American Commission sent by President Taft to the Republic of Liberia for the purpose of investigating conditions in that Republic. The Commission was escorted by a squadron of war ships. Their report opened a new day for the Liberian Republic, which would have brought forth abundant fruits but for the present war, which has paralyzed Liberian commerce and depleted her treasury. Last year, Mr. Scott was signally honored by the Honorable Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, who called him to be his special assistant in the War Department. This position placed upon the shoulders of Mr. Scott the responsibility of representing the colored people in the War Department during the period of the present struggle. The prevailing sentiment among all classes of the people is that a better and a more suitable man could not have been found for the place.

HARRY E. ARNOLD
Special Examiner U. S. Department of Labor.

Mr. Harry E. Arnold occupies a most important position in the United States Department of Labor. His duties are of a high character, requiring an extraordinary amount of ability combined with discretion and good judgment. Mr. Arnold is the only colored man holding a position of this kind in this department.

His work as an examiner requires him to travel extensively throughout the United States. He was selected for this position on account of special fitness and his efficient record as a special agent in the U. S. Department of Commerce, which position he formerly occupied. At one time Mr. Arnold was a resident of Baltimore, but during recent years has made his home in New York and Washington. His wife, formerly Miss Daisy N. Coleman, of Washington, and one of the most popular teachers of that city, is a sister of R. W. Coleman, the compiler of this directory. His brother, Dr. O. H. Arnold, is a prominent dentist of Baltimore.

Mr. Arnold is engaged in the investigation of labor conditions in the different cities as it applies to the colored American. His work is to ascertain the amount and character of labor which can be utilized and to awaken him to the full seriousness of the labor problem at this time. He is emphasizing the fact that the opportunity for patriotic service has come to the colored laborer, and that the man who does his part in contributing to the food production of his country is as patriotic as the man who shoulders the gun.

DANIEL MURRAY.

Mr. Daniel Murray was born in Baltimore, Md., March 3, 1852, and inherited on both sides of his parentage a dominant strain of Scottish blood. He received a good seminary education, supplemented by private instruction in the languages. In January, 1871, he entered the Library of Congress, at Washington, D. C., under the late Ainsworth R. Spofford, who took a fatherly interest in him, and who aided him in every possible manner. Mr. Spofford made him his personal assistant and taught him methods of research which had given Mr. Spofford world-wide reputation. This made it necessary for Mr. Murray to study the modern languages. Being thus equipped and having learned the sources of information and the most approved methods of seeking the same, he spent nearly all of his time in the service of the Library of Congress seeking answers for Congressional inquirers. In this way he came across a vast deal of material of transcendent importance to the colored race, and determined to make the effort to gather it together, confident in the racial patriotism to assist in giving it to the world. Wendell Phillips justly held "that he who knew the source of information might truly be said to have the key to the book of knowledge."

From the very first Mr. Murray designed compiling a Cyclopedia during the years of his life time, and of leaving the same as his legacy to the colored race, his sons to take up the work of publication. Hence, for more than fifteen years he has pursued with unremitting diligence, his self-imposed task, but, owing to the urgent importuning of friends, has decided to undertake its publication now.

Mr. Spofford was a man of strong anti-slavery convictions and singularly free from the blight of color prejudice, and he gave cordial encouragement to Mr. Murray's scheme. He helped him by suggestion and by direct assistance, but never let an opportunity go by to have included in his prospective work everything the vast Library of Congress contained in his line and thus the work grew.

Mr. Murray's Encyclopedia embraces the civilized world and seeks to cover the period beginning with Hagar (the mother of Ishmael) down to the present time. Haiti, San Domingo, Martinique, Guadeloupe, Mauritius, Antigua, Brazil, Bermuda, Trinidad, Barbadoes, Jamaica and all the islands of that region, are covered as never before in a compact form. Biographical sketches of all of the men and women who have been conspicuous in Liberia's history. Cuba and South America have been thoroughly treated, and every man of distinction in every part of the world allied to the colored race noted and fully investigated. Several thousand names, constantly met with in ancient and modern history, and whose identity with the colored race is known only to those who have traced them, are now classified; this classification being easy of arrangement in an Encyclopedia such as this.

PROFESSOR GEORGE WILLIAM COOK
of Howard University.

Professor Cook was born January 7, 1885, at Winchester, Va., and remained there until "Banks and Shields' Retreat" from the Shenandoah Valley, at which time his father took the family to Pennsylvania. Professor Cook spent nine years in the City of Harrisburg; then went to New York, and after three years' residence came to Howard University, which he entered October 7, 1874. He has been connected with the university continuously since that time as a student, teacher and officer. This connection afforded him a rare opportunity of molding the characters of a large number of the aspiring and picked youth of this country at a most critical period in its history. And so well has he grasped this opportunity that he is universally loved and respected by several generations of Howardites scattered in all parts of the country.

He graduated from the preparatory department in 1877 and entered college, from which he graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1881, and was appointed instructor in the normal department and college department the same year. In 1886 he received the degree of A. M. from Howard. He graduated from the law department of the university with the degree of LL. B. in 1897 and LL.M. in 1898.

Professor Cook became principal of the normal department upon the death of Miss Martha Briggs in 1889, which position he held until 1900, when he was made Dean of the Commercial College. This position he holds at the present time.

In his present position as Secretary and Business Manager, to which he was elected in 1908, he has distinguished himself in a difficult and delicate situation. Much of the physical development and improvement which the grounds and buildings have undergone during the last decade are due to his energy, judgment and acquaintance with the needs of the university and the expenditure of its funds. On several occasions he has been designated as acting president by the president in his absence.

DR. HARRY F. BROWN.

The man who made Provident Hospital what it is today. Medical examiner Monumental Lodge No. 3, Elks; medical examiner Arch Social; superintendent Provident Hospital; graduate Howard Medical College, '06.

ASHBIE W. HAWKINS.

Ex-President of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Baltimore Branch. Lawyer Hawkins is a most fearless champion of justice. He is a scholar, a writer and orator. He figured conspicuously in the fight against segregation in Baltimore and is largely responsible for the final decision handed down by the Supreme Court a few months ago.

The Baltimore colored populace has shown its appreciation of his unselfish work by giving him two testimonial banquets, and a beautiful testimonial Masonic ring.

MR. THOMAS R. SMITH.

Mr. Thomas R. Smith, of Baltimore, is the proprietor of the largest colored Hotel in the South. He is probably the best known man of his race in this country. Mr. Smith is of a genial and charitable nature. His hospitality is known to all denominations, and his friends are legion.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS FROM THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

This is the man that did more for Morgan College than any other man in the last Legislature. A bill was introduced by a Democrat of Baltimore County to compel Morgan College to move from its present place. Mr. J. Frank Fox, a Republican member of the last Legislature was Chairman of the Corporation Committee, and the matter was referred to his Committee, and the matter was handled to the satisfaction of the College Heads. Dr. Spencer can vouch for this, as Dr. Spencer was in constant touch with Mr. Fox during the session. The Bill never passed the House, and too much credit cannot be given Mr. Fox for his efforts in the matter.

Mr. Fox has been a life-long Republican, and has been a member of the Maryland Legislature for two terms, and is now a Candidate for Congress from the Fourth District, and we members of the Colored race should get behind Mr. Fox and do all we can for his interest.
