Mr. Robert W. Coleman

Mr. Coleman is a widely known figure, not only for his directory, but for a number of other of his worthy activities in the public life of Baltimore. He created and has published each year since 1913 The First Colored Directory of Baltimore City, with Washington Annex. Similar works have been compiled in other cities in imitation of Mr. Coleman's idea. He also conceived and organized, with the assistance of six other gentlemen, The Association for the Handicapped, Incorporated, which since 1913 has been active in contributing to the interests of the deaf, dumb, blind, crippled and feeble-minded.

He was born November 3, 1876, in Washington, D. C., attended the public schools, and graduated from the old M Street High School business department in 1894, and is the son of A. B. Coleman, who, associated with the younger Frederick Douglass, helped organize the Colored Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth and Fifty-fifth Massachusetts regiments during the dark days of the War of the Rebellion. For their services they received the thanks of the legislature of Boston. His mother was Mary Catherine Jones Coleman. He married Miss Mary Mason of Baltimore and has six children. All girls. Mr. Coleman is a relative of the late Judge Robert H. Terrell.

Though stricken with almost complete blindness after he reached adult manhood, he has continued his active interests in public life, and is greatly devoted to social work, including the colored case work conference and the Y. M. C. A., of which he was at one time a member of the board of directors.

YOUR MOTHER—When a mother has given her strength, often her health, to care for her children, it is little, indeed, to ask in return that they pay to her as much as they do to acquaintances. There will come a day, boys and girls, when you will be very, very sorry for every word or deed that hurt your father or mother, a day when you will want only a chance to let them know how sorry you are—if there could be just a few years to be kind and repay in some part your big debt—but it will be too late.

A Woman's Touch

In a home disrupted by bereavement there are innumerable ways in which a lady assistant lends a helping hand. By her kindly manner and diligent application, order is brought out of chaos. Her womanly intuition adds warmth and understanding to the simplest detail. She anticipates every need in the household and is, by nature, able to sympathize perfectly with every member of the family. Such an assistant is part of our service.

THE VITAL SPOT FOR QUALITY SERVICE

N. E. Corner Pennsylvania Ave. and Presstman St. Baltimore, Md.

CENTRAL AVENUE, NEAR MONUMENT STREET

The house of Talking Pictures, Vitaphone and Movietone. The most beautiful house for colored people south of New York.

The Dunbar Theatre, operated by the Dunbar Amusement Corporation, with Mr. Josiah Diggs, President; Dr. James Hilburn, Secretary and Treasurer, and Mr. Walter W. Carr, Manager and Vice President, is a monument to the industry, untiring energy, and faith in the people of Baltimore manifest by its president and founder.

Mr. Diggs opened his house, which was then a much smaller building, with a capacity of 350 people, back in 1917, and by the dint of continual effort and persistency "carried on" until in November, 1923, he was compelled to rebuild on the original site when he enlarged his theatre to a magnificent building, 75x100 feet, with a capacity of 1,000 people, making it the largest movie house for our people in Maryland.

Besides pictures from such famous studios as Paramount, Fox, Metro Goldwyn, Warner Bros., and First National, the Dunbar has an unexcelled orchestra led by Carlos Daugherty.

Visitors in the City should make it a special point to visit the Dunbar Theatre
