SAMUEL R. MORSELL

*Executive Secretary, Druid Hill Avenue
Branch Y. M. C. A.*

To Mr. Morsell has fallen the lot of giving guidance, during the depression period, to the Young Men's Christian Association of the city of his birth, public school training, and five-year teaching career. His appointment four years ago as executive secretary of the Druid Hill Avenue Branch, which, for several years prior to 1901, when he entered Oberlin College, Ohio, he had served as an active board member, was the culmination of twenty-four years of service as an Association secretary. He began in 1907 as general secretary of the Goffe Street Y. M. C. A., New Haven, Conn., and served nineteen years as executive secretary and "builder" of the new $274,000 Centre Avenue Branch building in Pittsburgh, Pa., and a year in White Plains, N. Y., where he organized the work among our group. It was at this famous seat of Westchester County, New York, that Morsell's refusal to co-operate with his white board of directors in their efforts to appease local residential race segregationists led to the loss of his position there.

The local "Y" executive, after graduation at Oberlin College, spent three years at Yale University, receiving his B. D. degree in 1910 from the Divinity School, where in his first year he was winner of the second Mersick prize.

In 1927 Mr. Morsell was appointed by Governor John Fisher of Pennsylvania to represent Western Pennsylvania on the State Commission which recently erected the $50,000 Colored Soldiers Statue in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia.

DR. FRANCIS M. WOOD

*Director of Colored Schools
Baltimore, Maryland*

The growth of the colored schools of Baltimore City during the past nine years has been unusually rapid and gratifying. Increased enrollment and present social demands have made necessary additional school facilities and improved classroom instruction.

Much of this growth may be traced to the able leadership of Dr. Francis M. Wood, who by his daily professional life has set for those who serve under him an example worthy of emulation.

His industry has inspired others to be industrious. His approachableness and keen sense of justice have encouraged many not only to confide in him, but also to seek his advice in personal as well as professional matters. His fearlessness has led him to do that which he thought right and proper despite opposition. His fairness has insured for every one a square deal.

On July 9, 1925, Dr. Wood was appointed Supervisor of Colored Public Schools of Baltimore City. Two years later he was advanced to the position of Director of Colored Public Schools of Baltimore City. At the end of his fifth year of service a public testimonial was given him, at which time the Mayor of the City of Baltimore, the Board of Superintendents, the Board of School Commissioners, teachers, and many other citizens of the two races were present. On June 2, 1931, because of his outstanding accomplishments in the educational world, Morgan College conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Pedagogy.

ALBERT I. CASSELL

Architect of Howard University. Public spirited citizen of Washington, D. C., one of the most outstanding architects in the country. He is charitable, co-operative, congenial, and a Christian gentleman, a man the race is proud to claim.

LINWOOD G. KOGER

Born in Reidsville, N. C. Attended the grammar schools there, high school in Washington; received his college degree in 1920 and law degree in 1922 at Howard University. He has held various public and private offices, among them may be listed: President, Baltimore Branch, N. A. A. C. P.; Alumni Secretary, Howard University; Legal Advisor to several organizations; President, Baltimore Howard University Club; Commander, Walter Green Post, American Legion, and Trustee, Union Baptist Church.

JUANITA LOUISE GORHAM

Executive secretary of the Sharp Street Community House, member of the Board of Directors of the Association for the Handicapped, director of branch activities, supervisor of the Community Club of the same organization, organizer and president of the Social Workers' Round Table of Baltimore, secretary of the local Negro Health Week Committee, Girl Scout captain and Sunday School teacher of Young People in the Sharp Street Memorial M. E. Church. Is much interested in athletics, has to her credit the first track team and summer camp of the Community House. The loss of Miss Gorham in her field of labor in Baltimore for the past four years is deeply regretted by the citizens and organizations with which she has been closely connected. Especially is this true of the Association for the Handicapped, for which she did volunteer investigation of cases, reports and write-ups for the papers. She possesses a magnetic personality, is an amiable and dignified young woman. She has done a very splendid piece of work at the Sharp Street Community House. Her superior executive ability has been so outstanding in conducting the affairs of the Community House that we Baltimoreans feel it will be difficult to replace her. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. P. T. Gorham of Chicago, Illinois.

DUNBAR THEATRE

CENTRAL AVENUE, near MONUMENT STREET

The house of Talking Pictures, Vitaphone and Movietone. The most beautiful house for colored people south of New York.

The Dunbar Theatre, operated by the Dunbar Amusement Corporation, with Mr. Josiah Diggs, President; and Mr. Walter W. Carr, Manager and Vice-President, is a monument to the industry, untiring energy, and faith in the people of Baltimore manifest by its President and founder.

Mr. Diggs opened his house, which was then a much smaller building, with a capacity of 350 people, back in 1917, and by the dint of continual effort and persistency "carried on" until in November, 1923, he was compelled to rebuild on the original site when he enlarged his theatre to a magnificent building, 75 x 100 feet, with a capacity of 1,000 people, making it the largest movie house for our people in Maryland.

The Pictures exhibited are from the very best Studios and Producers of the country.

Visitors in the City should make it a special point to visit the Dunbar Theatre.
