HARRY W. NICE

Governor of Maryland

Harry W. Nice is the fifty-sixth Governor of Maryland, and but the third Republican to be elected in that State since the birth of the Republican Party.

He was born in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, on December 5th, 1877, and is the son of the late Reverend Henry Nice, a Methodist Minister, and Drucilla Arnold Nice. His father, whose ancestors came to America with William Penn, and settled in the State of Pennsylvania, began his ministerial life at Snow Hill, Maryland, in the year 1857. His mother, Drucilla Arnold Nice, was the daughter of William A. Arnold, of Virginia.

Educated in Public Schools of Baltimore City, Baltimore City College, Dickinson College (Carlisle, Pennsylvania), University of Maryland.

Has received honorary degrees of Doctor of Laws—University of Maryland, St. John's College (Maryland), Washington College (Maryland), Dickinson College (Pennsylvania).

Married June 8, 1905, to Edna Viola Amos, of Baltimore City. Two sons, one deceased and one living, Harry W. Nice, Jr. Offices Held: Member of the Baltimore City Council, Secretary of the Mayor of Baltimore, Supervisor of Elections, Judge of the Appeal Tax Court, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for the City of Baltimore, Prosecuting Attorney for the City of Baltimore, Governor of Maryland.

HOWARD W. JACKSON

Mayor of Baltimore

Born August 4, 1877, near Stemmers Run, Maryland.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Jackson.

In 1885 his parents moved to Havre de Grace, Maryland, where he was educated.

He came to Baltimore as an employee of the well-known Baltimore optical concern, F. W. McAllister & Company, where he remained for many years. He won the place of secretary of the McAllister Company through his outstanding business ability.

Mr. Jackson married Miss Ella M. Galloway, of Havre de Grace, on September 14, 1898.

In 1907 he was elected to the City Council of Baltimore and in 1909 he was elected Register of Wills of the City of Baltimore, succeeding himself to that office in 1915 and again in 1921, always with increased majorities that proved his extreme personal popularity as well as paying tribute to his efficiency in public office.

MAYOR HOWARD W. JACKSON

In 1910 Mr. Jackson had become a partner in the insurance agency conducted by Harry L. Riall, and this

Gladstone, England's great statesman, said:

"Show me the manner in which a community cares for its dead, and I will measure with mathematical exactness the tender sympathies of its people".

That Explains Why

ARBUTUS MEMORIAL PARK IS THE PREFERRED CEMETERY

Picture a sweep of gently rolling acres adorned with lovely evergreens, and covered with an unbroken spread of beautiful green grass, always kept watered and evenly cut — no weeds, litter, over-grown and dead grass: and you see Arbutus, Baltimore's long - awaited, modern cemetery, where friendly Perpetual Care is guaranteed by character, sound business practices expert superintendence, and a Perpetual Care Trust Fund.

The Dedication, Sunday, June 28, 1936, was the greatest event of its kind in our national history: 3,500 spectators, distinguished musical talent, and representatives of all denominations participating.

firm becoming known as Riall Jackson and Company soon stamped itself as one of the leading insurance agency groups, not only of Baltimore, but of the South. This partnership continued until 1929, when Mr. Jackson bought out the interests of Mr. Riall.

In 1923, announcement that Howard W. Jackson was a candidate for the high office as Mayor, was heralded with delight by thousands of friends, and in a three-cornered fight, he won by the largest majority that had ever been given to a Mayor of Baltimore up to that time.

Retiring from public office in 1927, Mr. Jackson devoted the next four years to his insurance business, and again in the election of 1931 he was deluged with requests to again become a candidate for Mayor, and accepted after a petition of more than sixty thousand voters had been placed before him. His success in the general election is still remembered as he was swept into office over his Republican opponent, William G. Albrecht, by a majority of over sixty-three thousand, the largest majority ever given to a mayoralty candidate in the City of Baltimore.

In May of 1935 Mayor Jackson was elected by another large majority for his third term of office. His victory in the primary election and later in the general election was generally accepted as a tribute to his splendid business ability which carried the city through several years of depression in a healthy financial condition, while the severe problem of aiding the unemployed was met by adequate municipal participation in the various phases of the situation. The fact that Mayor Jackson had placed the city on a balanced budget system, free from floating debt and at the same time maintaining all the vital operations of government without impairment undoubtedly contributed largely to his success at the polls in connection with his campaign for re-election.

Baltimore has been widely advertised throughout the nation as a city with money in bank, and Mayor Jackson has generally been given credit for this condition.

DANIEL ELLISON

Mr. Daniel Ellison, who for the fourth time has served as City Councilman from the Fourth District, is now a candidate for Congress.

His rich and rare experience as the only Republican Councilman has particularly fitted him to represent the colored voters as Congressman, for he has had the experience of representing minority groups both in race and politics.

He is keen, alert, capable, sincere and honest in his convictions.

Is a loyal friend and ever ready to serve his constituents.

He is running on a very generous platform that should appeal to every forward thinking citizen, especially the colored voter.

He has pledged himself to "Social Security"—pensions for the aged and unemployed and aid to the handicapped.

Equal rights for all, regardless of race, creed or color.

To support the Howard University appropriations.

DANIEL ELLISON

To support the N. A. A. C. P. in their anti-lynch bill.

He believes in higher education for all regardless of race and will work to that end.

Basing his future conduct on past performance as City Councilman he is asking you to give him a chance to represent you in Congress where he can do bigger and better things, not only for Maryland, but can help in the big problems that confront minority groups everywhere.

April 30, 1936.

Governor Harry W. Nice
Union Trust Building, Baltimore, Maryland.

Sir: I am writing this letter to you in the interest of the Association for the Handicapped, Inc., of Baltimore. They are celebrating their twenty-fifth anniversary from May 17th to May 22nd. This organization is under the leadership of Mr. Robert W. Coleman, who is also handicapped by blindness.

As sponsor of this movement, he has so crystallized public interest until the school board has erected a magnificent school building for handicapped children at Schroeder and Franklin Streets.

Mr. Coleman is one of the foremost citizens of Maryland. He is a Mason; he also has the endorsement of civic and religious leaders of the city and State. Mrs. Marie Bauernschmidt knows of his work and would, I am sure, tell you much concerning his accomplishments.

The association, therefore, is asking that you issue a proclamation on declaring May 17th to May 22nd as Negro Handicapped Week through the city and State of Maryland.

I trust you shall see your way clear to grant this favor for this very worthy and commendable cause.

As I am leaving the city, please direct your communication to Mr. Robert W. Coleman, 1145 Myrtle Avenue.

Attached therewith is a personnel of the Association for the Handicapped, Inc.

Respectfully yours,

WILLARD W. ALLEN.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND

Governor Nice's Proclamation Negro Handicapped Week May 17, 1936, to May 23, 1936

WHEREAS, There are many Negro citizens in the State of Maryland suffering from various types of mental and physical handicaps who attempt to avail themselves of the limited opportunities afforded them to improve their condition and thereby relieve the State of the burden of their care; and

WHEREAS, The Association for the Handicapped has endeavored unceasingly for twenty-five years to help those suffering from any type of handicap, to adjust themselves in life and to seek aid in securing for them whatever appliances science has found most suited and best fitted to their condition; and

WHEREAS, the said Association for the Handicapped is celebrating, May 17th, to May 23, 1936, the twenty-fifth anniversary of its labors, in an effort to more fully acquaint the public with its achievements and the fine contributions which it has made to the social welfare of the State and the Negro Race.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY W. NICE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, do proclaim the week beginning May 17th, 1936, and ending May 23rd, 1936, as Negro Handicapped Week, during which we hope a conscientious effort shall be made to awaken in the minds of the citizens of this State an appreciation for the thoughts, feelings, accomplishments and needs of those less fortunate than themselves, who in spite of serious handicaps are in many instances doing more for themselves, their families and their communities than their more fortunate brethren.

[THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND]

GIVEN under my Hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, at the City of Annapolis, this 9th day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Thirty-six.

Arguments for Colored Representatives on the Board of School Commissions of Baltimore City

1. The colored population of Baltimore constitutes approximately one-sixth of the total population. This group of citizens pays its share of the taxes, receives a portion of the benefits through various City agencies, but has nothing to do or say in the administration of these departments. It is fair, therefore, for those interested in the public schools of the City, where Civics and other subjects have as their ultimate purpose the building of citizenship, should be interested in such a large percentage of citizens and children in the public school.
2. It amounts to taxation without representation in shaping the policies and ideals of a great educational system.
3. There are approximately 25,000 colored children in the schools of Baltimore. No one knows the family life, family background, the home environments of these 25,000 children better than colored people themselves. Because of the racial differences and barriers it is impossible for white people, however fair they may be, to accurately evaluate all of the conditions entering into such a large racial group.
4. For these reasons and others not mentioned, a colored representative on the School Board could speak with authority in the interest of one-sixth of the citizens of our great city.

Re: Schools 109, 127, 131

Dear Sir:

I wrote you on the 22nd of January, requesting permission for a committee from the Association For The Handicapped to meet with the Board of School Commissioners to discuss conditions in the above-named schools. Said request was at first referred to the Committee on Health, Education and Physical Education but later transferred to the Committee on Buildings, according to Miss M. O'Hara, Secretary to your Board. We were advised that we would be notified of the next meeting of the Committee on Buildings and have an opportunity to be heard.

Since the school year will soon close and it is problematical whether or not we shall have an opportunity to meet with the Board of Commissioners, we have decided to send our findings instead of waiting for a conference.

Perhaps you are not fully aware of the deplorable conditions prevalent at Schools numbered 109, 127 and 131. Enclosed herein, you will find a copy of the report made upon these buildings in 1920-1921 by the "Strayer Survey," and the report of a committee from the Association for the Handicapped, which investigated these schools in December, 1935. These schools were found to be so dangerous and out of date that immediate abandonment was considered necessary more than fifteen years ago; yet, though they are in far worse condition today, mentally handicapped children are instructed there. Surely, the mentally handicapped child needs far more pleasant surroundings than the normal child if his condition is to improve. It is for these reasons that the Association for the Handicapped urges the Board of School Commissioners to abandon or rebuild the aforementioned Schools before the fall term of 1936-1937, or place these children in more suitable buildings.

Thanking you for your immediate attention to this matter, we are

The Association for the Handicapped submits these two letters as typical examples of the type of work they do throughout the year. We are happy to report to the citizens of Baltimore that through our persistent efforts, the above named schools are now being renovated and improved. Though we shall not be satisfied until we secure modern school buildings for these unfortunate children, we are very pleased that they will not be subjected to the same unhealthy surroundings which they were forced to face last year.
