

Internship Opportunity

The Maryland Lynching Truth and Reconciliation Commission (MLTRC) is accepting internship applications from eligible students to assist the Commission with its vital work. This internship is voluntary and unpaid. Spring and Fall 2024 positions are available.

About the MLTRC:

The Maryland Lynching Truth and Reconciliation Commission, the first such commission in the United States, was established in 2019 by Maryland House Bill 307. It is authorized to research cases of racially motivated lynchings and hold public meetings and regional hearings where a lynching of an African American by a white mob has been documented. The Commission will submit a report to Maryland's Governor and General Assembly documenting its findings and proposing reconciliation recommendations.

Intern Responsibilities:

The MLTRC consists of three committees: the logistics committee, the research committee and the reconciliation committee. Interns will assist these committees by conducting the following tasks, including but not limited to: reviewing and analyzing hearing transcripts to identify themes; researching domestic and international reconciliation models and precedents; researching Maryland and federal law to determine the constitutionality of any proposed recommendations; helping the Commission prepare for regional hearings on lynchings as well as a hearing focused on the topic of reconciliation; and assisting with the drafting of the Commission's final report due December 2025.

Time Commitment: 5-10 hours/week per semester

Qualifications: Law student or graduate student with a demonstrated interest in civil rights/social justice and exceptional research, writing and organizational skills.

How to Apply: Please submit your resume, cover letter, and writing sample to info@michellecoles.com. Applications accepted on a rolling basis.
