Interesting Exercise And A Fne Din ner Thanksgiving - Addressed Delived And Sermon Preached.

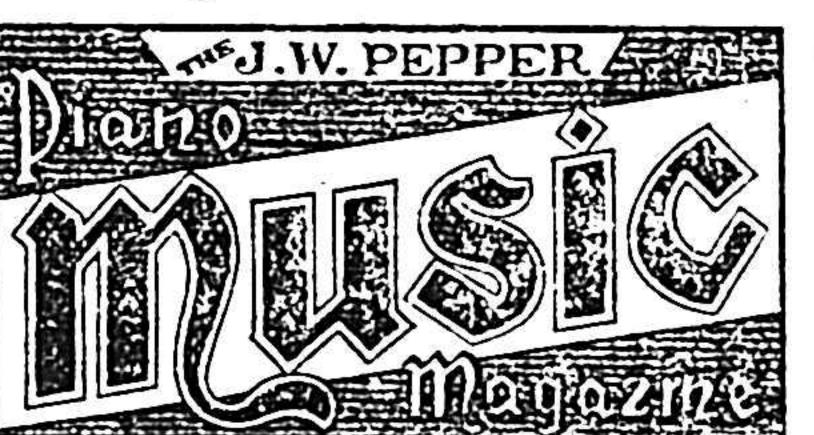

Lincoln, University, Dec. 9.—Thanksgiving was a lively day at Lincoln University, never before have the boys taken such deep interest in arranging programs. Many new exercises were introduced for the entertainment of vis itors, and all left well pleased with what they saw expressing their best wishes for the advancement of the piano was purchased by the students they give, and the bringing together of time at the Thanksgiving concert given in the evening by the orchestra. As football is an interesting feature among college students, so it is at Lincoln. At 9.30 a. m, two picked teams, viz: "The World" and "The State," assembled on Randall Field for a lively contest.
