The last portion of Admiral Cotton's cablegram is unintelligible, and the York. cipher experts at the Navy Department worked all the morning to translate it. Copies of the report were sent at once to the President and to the State Department.

Constantinople (By Cable).—A consular dispatch from Beirut, received at one of the embassies here, states that a fierce brawl occurred there between parties of Mussulmans and Christians. It was a shot fired by a Mussulman' upon a Christian employed at the American College. The Christian was wounded.

The fight broke out while the vali was on board the United States cruiser Brooklyn returning Rear Admiral Cotton's visit. No further details have been received. In diplomatic circles here the affair is regarded as being serious and a renewal of the disturbances is feared.

An official version of the Beirut affair telegraphed later to the Ottoman ambassadors abroad for communication to the powers says that Christians were the assailants, they having fired upon four Mussulmans.
