This is true to life. Others sue us for mercy as we have made our suit to God, but we have no ling, "His Lord called him." If we will not listen to the cry of our debtors, then we shall hear the voice of our creditor. God freely offers forgiveness for all our $12,000,000 indebtedness, but if we truly accept it, we will prove it by freely forgiving others. If we do not forgive others it proves that we have despised the proffered mercy of God. We are now back on the law basis, and we shall be delivered to the tormentors till we pay "all that is due."
