SMART SET AT HOLLIDAY STREET

Headed By S. H. Dudley, The Popular And Versatile Actor.

Next week's attraction at the Holliday Street Theatre will be the Smart Set" Company, that mirthful and side-splitting three act musical comedy, headed by S. H. Dud-Mey. the popular and versatile Negro comedian. The production which is under the direction of Messrs. Button and Wiswell; is by Edwin Hanford who has devised plenty of novelties, situations and surprises that are out of the ordinary. There are fafteen original song hits and musical numbers turnished by Brim, Smith and Burris. The music is of the jingling, tuneful variety certain to please the most exacting lover of light and catchy melodies.

Mr. Dudley has a part that is sare to set off his well-known capabili ties as a funmaker to excellent advantage. He will appear in kaspberry Snow, one of those never-dowell Negroes who get in all sorts of Bethel. Boat leaves Miller's Wharf troubles ill advisedly. Raspberry at 8.30 P. M. There are seven scenes all told and the action is so spirited and the dialogue so crip and witty that Located on the Eastern Avenue Road The Ladies are for in order to appreciate every line and leature one must be on the alert all renovated, and is now the most beautithe time.

Nowadays, as a rule, musical comedies consist of jumbling mass time honored situations, horse play, stale jokes, a lot of old scenery, interpolated songs, etc. The public is asked to pass critical judgment on such offerings as being entirely new. However, it does not take long for amusement seekers to find out that they are welcoming some old friend in a new guise.
