Meanwhile all ing Jesus Christ and joint heirs with Him should walk worthy of His kingdom and glory while they wait for it (I Thess. ii. 12). Their motto should ever and always be. "First the king-I dom of God." Then there would be no anxious thought about aught else, for He gives the assurance that all will be provided by our Father, who knoweth all our need (verses 31, 32). Whether it : be the service or prayer or fasting of the daily life, there is one principle to govern all. It must be unto the Father. who seeth in secret, who looketh upon the heart and to whom all things are naked and open. "Not as pleasing men. but God who trieth our hearts" (. Thess, il, 4), is a principal always to be observed. In contrast to that the most I religious people of our Lord's time did everything to be seen of men (Matt.) xxiii, 5). It was even so in the days of the prophets, and a special teature of the last days of this age will be a turnling away from the truth and a form of godliness without any power (Isa. xxix, 13; Ezek, xxxiii, 31; H Tim, iii, 1.5; iv. 3, 4). In each of the three paragraphs of our lesson there is a contrast between a present reward or approval of men and a future reward from God Himself, spoken of in verse 20 as "treasure in heaven." We cannot serve God and Mammon or God and the devil, for the friendship of this world is enmity with God, and that which is highly esteemed among men is aboutination in the sight of God (verse 24; Luke xvi, 15; Jas. iv. 4). There was only one who always and in all things pleased the Father, but He desires to live His life in us and will if we yield fully to Him (John vill, 20; Il Cor. iv.
