Pastor Tendered A Surprised

The pastor of Payne Memoral A. M. E. Church, Rev. J. G. Martin, was tendered a surprise at the parsonage, 1342 Calhoun street, on Monday, June 3, about 10.30 p. m. by a large number of the mem- Fare, Round Trip, 50 Cents. bers and their friends funder the direction of the steward and stewardesses. On behalf of the aforesaid organization, Mrs. Sophia Smith, presented the pastor with a purse, about two hundred pounds of grociers of various kinds and a number of kitchen utensils for the In accepting these gifts, Rev. Martin thanked the committee and its co-workers and in a few chosen remarks assured them that while he remained their pastor he would endeavor to work for the best interest of the church. After serving refreshments the friends retired to their homes.
