City News in Brief. High School Graduating

Class Entertained

Hall last Friday evening.

Addresses interpersed with musical selections made up the program. In the reception which followed the members of both classes participated, together with the faculty of the school and the invited guests.

The annual reception to the graduating class has been a feature for To St. Michaels, Md. some years, and the one last Friday night was the most elaborate ever given. Music for the affair was Fare, Round Trip, 50 Cents. rendered by Kerr's Full orchestra, which was seated on a platform screened by palms and flowers.

Much of the success of the affair is due to the efforts of Mr. John R. Williams, president of the Third year class.

Pastor Jordan Welcomed
