Mrs. Rosa Richardson Declines Reelection for Another Term. Mrs. Catherine Burton the New Head.

The Grand Court of Calanthe, Jurisdiction of Maryland of N. A. S. A. E. A. and A. held their 19th annual session in Asbury M. E. Church, Hagerstown, Md.. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, at which time the session was largely attended. On Monday afternoon there was a grand street parade of the military department under the command of General Lewis E. Williams which was commended very highly for their splendid appearance in line; which shall go down in history and shall never be forgotten by the people in that town as such had never been there before The grand worthy councillor. Sister Rosa J. Richardson and her cabinet were well represented and the subordimate courts as well, all following grand principals—Fidelity, Harin automobiles which added much in automobiles which added much to the beauty of the parade. On morning the election of officers Monday night, G. W. C., Sister took place. The G. W. C., Sister Rosa J. Richardson and cabinet Rosa J. Richardson was reelected; conferred the fourth degree on 34 butthe sister most cheerfully, willevening was devoted to a grand nogition in the entertainment at the Samaritan Catherine Burton who was then the Hall which was much pleasure and unanimous choice. So glorious]was the meeting that it was called a home coming by Sister Carroll, through permission of G. W C., Sister Rosa J. Richardson. The resuit was bringing three souls to Christ. Namely, Sister Alverta Waters, Junianna Johnson, and Elizabeth Wilson. The meeting was an impressive one and many prayers were offered up for sinners. The evening session was devoted to various reports. G. W. C., made a very encouraging report in the behalf of the progress and growth of the order. On taking the position for which the grand worthy commander held for the past six years there were only 22 Courts in the jurisdiction; now the Courts number 35; Juvenile Councils 2, the total worth of Grand Court was Three dollars.
