The Colored Business Men's Exchange takes this method of anicing to the public its indorsements of Wm. L. Fitzgerald for the First Branch City Council of the Seventeenth Ward and Warner T. McGuinn for the First Branch City Council of the Fourteenth Ward.

With pleasure we have watched their growth during a period of many years, and by their unbounded energy, unfailing integrity and great natural ability they both have won a most honorable reputation among all business men of our city and their fellow citizens.

We believe both are peculiarly fitted to take places among the solons of our city. Their honesty has never been questioned, their loyalty to their race has been beyond reproach and their long business training and experience fits them for the arduous duties of our City

It seems to us that laws are best made by lawyers; their legal training will stand them in good stead in their battling for the inter- Phone, Mt.
