Had Pictures Of Nude Women

pological Society and adopted one of her, Miss Henter's, properties as a studio for the same. Young colored girls visited this studio and posed, nude, in various postures, while photographs were made.

WITNESSES TESTIFY

Helen Saunders of 627 10th St. N. E. was one of the state's witnesses against the accused. It was claimed by Detective Hulen, in his testimony that "Dr. Moens admitted having illicit relations with Miss Saunders and had committed unnatural acts with her. That he, Dr. Moens, had taken two nude pictures of the girl, which were produced as evidence. These relationships and pictures, Miss Saunders admitted in the presence of Dr. Moens and 10 other persons."

Another state's witness was Miss Bertha Taylor Young of 1864 3rd St. N. W. It was claimed that she had known Dr. Moens for sometime, and when she went to his studio with Helen Saunders, she had no intentions of posing, but was later persuaded to do so. It was further stated that Miss Young said girls danced around the studio in a nude state.

ADVERTISED FOR GIRLS

Damaging evidence was given by Misses Juanita Arthur and Ruth Barnsley, who testified that they went to Moen's studio in answer to an advertisement. Both the girls were requested to pose. Miss Arthur refused at first, but later returned to the studio bringing six other girls. All were submitted to measurement, but Miss Arthur was refused because it was said, a certain part of her body lacked a dimple.

MISS HUNTER SECURED GIRLS

Dr. Moens stated that Miss Hunter, his assistant, succeeded in securing a number of girls to pose on the grounds that they would benefit their race. Dr. Moens was attempting to prove that colored people were not physically inferior to white people, 1. e., that there was no difference in racial forms.

OTHER WITNESSES

Other witnesses summoned for the state were: Rachel H. Custis of 1837 5th St. N. W.; Edna Swann, 1538 Swann St. N. W.; Carie Wilkins, 1214 You St. N. W.; Virginia Parsons, (white) Homeopathic Hospital, Hazel D. Johns, 337 Maryland Ave., S. W.; Katherine Calloway, 1429 9th St. N. W.; Edna Gordon, 1329 Wallach Place, N. W.; Alice Shaw, 1800 Vermont Ave. N. W.; Annie Brown, 1428 S St. N. W., and Lottie Stevens. All of these girls were said to have posed in a nude state for the accused at various times.

THE ACCUSED

Dr. Herman M. Bernelot Moens is a citizen of Netherlands and a native of Holland. He is reported to come from a distinguished family. Dr. Moens claims to be a scientist o. repute and so recognized in this country and Europe. He has engaged in many scientific researches in respect to the origin and development of the human races. He is most particularly interested in the branches of zoology, especially Embryology, Paleontology, and Anthropology. To the investigation and instruction of these, he has devoted his entire life. It was this study that required the nude photographs of the human body, it's various parts and natural conditions. Dr. Moens further claimed that it was necesary for students of comparative anatomy and investigators in the arts and sciences to have such pictures.

DETAINED IN THIS COUNTRY

Moens came to this country in March 1914 on his way to Japan and the Dutch East Indies. He got no farther than California, when the great war broke out, and his money being tied up in Prussian and Austrian banks, his finances were depleted.

He decided to remain in this country and visited Panama, Oklahoma, New Orleans, Tuskegee and St. Louis, where he made a direct study of interesting and important types and characteristics of the mixed races, including Indian, Mongolian, Negro and White.

ACCUSED OF BEING SPY

It was while visiting the homes of the humble and the well educated Negroes, going into places of vice and ill repute, for the purpose of study, that Dr. Moens claims he was accused of spreading German propaganda among the colored people and interned as a German spy. While his room personal effects and papers were being searched by the government secret service men for evidence, the pictures were found.

He was indicted by the Grand Jury on the charge of having these pictures in his possession and arrested on October 25th, 1918, and later releaced on $5,000 bail, which on petition was reduced to $3,000.

PHOTOS MADE BY GOVERNMENT

That the photographs were all printed by the U. S. Government Photographers was the assertion of Dr. Moens. He claims that none of the prints were made by him.

He had eight subjects in nudes, each in from one to four poses. These particular persons were selectd because of their distinguished types and atavistic characteristics, which would not be dscovered in a thousand subjects.---More photos of prominent women are said to have been spirited away.

WARREN CONNECTED WITH CASE

It was rumored the photographer Warren, who was mysteriously and brutally murdered a few months ago was connected with the case. It is alleged that the murdered photographer made several of the nude photos and would have been an important witness in the case.

COMMIT SUICIDE IF SUMMONED

Miss Hunter, Dr. Moens' assistannt, when asked by the defense to testify in his behalf, stated that she would rather not appear in court and would commit suicide if summoned.

The trial consumed three days and created great interest in the capitol city.

Moens was found guilty by the jury, but sentence was suspended.

Richard P. Evans was the counsel for the defense.

IAS SLEEPING SICKNESS

A case of sleeping sickness has been reported by a local physician and the patient is now said to be on the road to recovery. The physician stated to a reporter of the Afro-American that the disease started with sneezing and running of the nose, and ringing in the ears Following this everything the patient saw was double.

Paralysis of the face ad arm later set in and with this an irrepressible desire to sleep—any place, any time, sitting or standing, the patient dropped into a sleep only awaking to take nourishment.

The physician further stated that this sleeping desire is not connected with the sleeping sickness that is so prevalent in Africa, but is in reality nothing more than inflamation of the brain, an aftermath of the "flu." He said that the patient would possibly recover fully with the exception of slight paralysis.

MORSELL---In loving remembrance of our dear daughter who died one year ago, March 26, 1918.

Dear daughter I am lonesome and sad today
To think how suddenly you passed away
My heart is heavy; my grief is pain;
When I think of you, dear daughter that death had to claim.

I can not forget you, dear daughter
Though long may seem the years
And often in the lonely hours
I wipe away the tears.

Often we wander to the graveyard
To place flowers with gentle care
On the grave of our dear daughter
Who is resting gently there.

From the world of grief and trouble
To the land of peace and bliss
God has taken you, dear daughter
Where you will find eternal rest.
By her mother, KATIE MORSELL

JONES---In memory of our mother, Louise B. Jones, who departed this life April 5, 1916.

The Hope of Life

Across the mystic waves of life,
Upon the field of trouble,
Where earth's beginning ends in strife
Where sorrows ever bubble,
We hear a call; 'tis mother's voice
Celestial, skies are ringing
She's guiding us, we must rejoice
While heaven's choir is singing.

But yet, as tearful years rool by,
No fragrance earth is giving;
All rippled is the once clear sky;
Small pleasures found in living.
And thru life's boistrous winter toys
We know that, must come spring
When endless hours and ceaseless joys,
When all to each will cling.
By her CHILDREN.

MARTIN---In loving remembrance of my dear mother, Ellen J. Martin, who departed April 6, 1918.

From this world of grief and trouble
To the land of peace and rest
God has taken you, dear mother
Where you will find eternal rest.

I often sit and wonder
What you would say
If you only knew the changes, mother
Since you have passed away.

The month of April once more is here
To me the saddest of the year
Because it took from me away
My dear mother one year ago today.
By her children, Wm. H. MARTIN, JOSEPHINE HOLMES and Grand Children.

GREGERSON---In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, Charles Edward Gregerson, who departed this life five years ago today, March 27, 1914.

Sleep on dear son and take thy rest
I am waiting for the morning
For that blessed day to dawn
When the sorrows and sadness of this changeable life are gone.

I am waiting, only waiting,
'Till this weary life is o'er
Only waiting for my welcome
From my Saviour on the other shore.
By his mother,
MARY GREGERSON.

BROWN---In loving remembrance of our dear brother, Samuel C. Brown who departed this life January 6, 1919.

'Tis hard to break the tender chord,
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard so hard to speak the words
Must we forever part.
By his sister,
ANNETTE CAMPBELL.

We cannot tell who next may fall
Beneath thy chastening rod;
One must be first, but let us all
Prepare to meet our God.
By his sister,
HENRIETTA LEWIS

THE WHITE MAN DOES NOT KNOW IT ALL

My wife suffered from lung trouble and had three different doctors. The last was a popular white doctor residing on Connecticut avenue. He gave up my wife declaring that he had done all he could and in fact nothing more could be done for her. He left her coughing, 105 degrees fevre, pulse 122. A Baltimore friend advised us to cal Dr. D. Newton E. Campbell, the Lung and Nerve Specialist, 1369 N. Carey street, Baltimore, and he came to Washington, October 6, 1918. In les than a month fever and pulse reduced to normal. afterward my wife was out of bed.

She has gained more than 16 pounds since and is able to do part of her house work. Christmas I told the white doctor of my wife's improvement. He wondered and said he would take his hat off to the doctor who could do such grand work. Anyone can come and see my wife now. Her addres is 1926 15th Street, N.W. Whashingtn, D. C.
