1-To meet the cost of white paper. 2-To meet the higher wage scales of labor, which have very properly increased.

3-To give the newsboys and dealers a needed larger margin of profit. 4-To make a continually better publication fer the benefit of our readers. Value determines price, and price in turn regulates value. It costs more-much more-to produce a newspaper like the AFRO-AMERICAN, and a change in price is necessary to maintain our lead as a news and feature paper, and to continue an improvement which has been conspicuous in the past. Leading newspapers thruout the nation have found it necessary to increase their price to 6 cents and sometimes to 10 cents. New York, Chicago, Wilmington, Birmingham, Detroit and Dallas citizens are paying up to 10 cents for their newspaper.
