The Curse of Race Prejudice

By James F. Morton, Jr., A. M.

An aggressive exposure by an Anglo-Saxon champion of equal rights. Startling facts and crushing arguments. Fascinating reading. A necessity for clear understanding and up-to-date propaganda. Belongs in the library of every friend of social justice. Price 25 cents. Send order to

Records of Negro Artists

No institution and no agency has done as much to bring into popular knowledge the best in the world's store of music and song as the phonograph. Whether for recreation or for instruction, this remarkable device has made a place for itself in the homes of the world. Probably you have wanted to bring to your home and to your family and to your friends the voice of the individual Negro singer or the playing of the individual Negro performer who would take high rank among the invisible makers of music and singers of song whom the phonograph has brought to cheer your spare moments after the grind of the day's work is done.

Roland W. Hayes, the acknowledged leading singer of the Negro race, is bringing out a series of such records of Negro Artists and the following numbers are now ready:

"Swing Low Sweet Chariot" (arranged by Harry Burleigh).

"Vesti la Guibba (Put on Your Smock)" from Pagliacci, with orchestral accompaniment.

"Twilight," by Katherine A. Glen, with pianoforte accompaniment.

"I Hear You Calling Me," by Marshall, with pianoforte accompaniment.

These records sell for $1.50 each and can be used on any machine using disc records.

ROLAND W. HAYES, Tenor

Recitals Concerts Oratorio Opera
His voice is rich, pure, free and gracefully lyric; lends itself easily to dramatic passages. Not only has he a voice that many might envy, he also has the gift of interpretation. He catches almost instinctively the mood of the poet and composer.—Phillip Hale, in Boston Herald.

He combines a pleasing and well trained voice, particularly well used, with notable ability to express the meaning of his songs, excellent enunciation and love for his art.—Boston Traveler.
