SHORTHAND TYPEWRITING BOOKKEEPING
OVER THE TOP IN THREE MONTHS

Our student-army is organizing to start a three-months' campaign against Shorthand, Typewriting and Bookkeeping. They are going to capture the knowledge and take the salary-prizes of $1,000 and $1,200 by September 1st.

Several of our students are now enjoying high salary-prizes in the Government Service and private corporations.

A short time ago a few of our students and others received nasty letters, saying, "Give reasons why you should not be dismissed from the service within two days." Rev. Duncan was notified, and he, in turn, gave all details to our Congressman, William S. Vare, and in 24 hours everything was cleared up for our students and others. They are now working with a smile that will not come off. We train the student, graduate them, and protect them after leaving the school.

Free Employment Service—We have a large number of situations in domestic service—a few calls for competent stenographers. Several students leaving school have applied for clerical positions. Employers send for our list of situations wanted, and choose our applicants. Enclose stamp for reply.

EDWARD T. DUNCAN, President
