LANCE AND SWORD DRILL BY COLORED CADETS IN THE SUDAN

The Sudan Herald tells us that no public event of the year at Khartoum attracts such widespread attention and interest as the military school sports. This military school is training Negro officers for the Sudanese army "who for smartness, military position and sportsmanship rank with any in the world".

The report of Dr. C. G. Woodson, director of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, shows that during the year from July 1, 1921, the Association expended $11,509. The sum of $50,000 payable in five annual installments has been appropriated by the Carnegie Corporation and the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial. The Association has employed George F. Dow, C. G. Woodson and A. A. Taylor in special historical research. Three fellowships of five hundred dollars a year in the best graduate schools have been established. These fellows will take up Negro history, psychological measurements of Negroes and African anthropology and archaeology.

Dr. J. E. Dibble has received his fifth appointment as physician and surgeon to the Kansas City Southern Railroad. Dr. Dibble is also physician for the employees of the Kansas City Bolt & Nut Company and one of the locals of the Builders' and Laborers' Union.
