THE CRISIS

Vol. 26 No. 1

MAY, 1923

Whole No. 151

WAYFARING

I HAVE travelled 7500 miles and have yet another 1000 before I see my office again. I have delivered 30 lectures to 11,550 auditors or thereabouts, including 10 to branches of the N. A. A. C. P., 7 to colleges, 4 to churches, 3 to Christian Associations and 2 to Women's Clubs. I have yet 10 to deliver.

physical or cultural and these economic differences caused the Great War. I have shown in detail what the Negro did in the Great War—for France, for England, for the United States, for the world; and I have insisted that in race hate based on economic oppression lies the seed of future wars.

To the colored people, I have shown

This is the map of my going and the number of talks in each place where there was more than one. I write from Denver.

THE MESSAGE

SO far I have spoken to about 7200 white folk and 4350 black folk. This has been the burden of my messages: to the white folk, I have shown that present social divisions and antagonisms are economic rather than what we did in the World War and what we suffered, and what European economic imperialism has meant to us and our kind; what the future may be.

To both races, I have emphasized the work of the N. A. A. C. P. and the mission of the CRISIS, and to both I have at times, lectured on the contribution which Negroes have made to American culture.

My audiences have varied from 100 to 1200 persons. They have given
