SOCIAL PROGRESS

A public golf tournament, held on city-owned golf links at Philadelphia, Pa., sought to exclude two Negro contestants, Robert Ball, of Chicago, Ill., and Elmer Stout of Newark, N. J., who established in court their right to play and then withdrew from the tournament.

The Modern State Bank of Pittsburgh has closed its doors on orders from the State Banking Commissioner of Pennsylvania. The bank had deposits of $40,000 and capital of $50,000.

Unable to secure an air pilot's license in the United States on account of his race, Captain Henson Cuttley, an American Negro, who is at present military instructor to the Liberian frontier force stationed at Monrovia, has entered the School of Aviation at Berlin.

According to information obtained The Nazarene Congregational by Morton Schumacher, president of Church of Brooklyn, N. Y., organized Gold Coast and Mr. Justice Woolthe recently organized Lincoln Motor in 1873, has just celebrated its 55th house Bannerman, O. B. E., Acting Club of Philadelphia, Pa., not an in- anniversary. It had a migratory exist- Puisne Judge of the Central Province. surance company in the state is willing ence from the lower to the upper por- By long custom white men have forto take cars owned by colored people. tion of the Borough, and is now lo- merly held these positions.

Justus, Joseph and Leta Davis, p. 342

cated at its exact geographical center. It has now become the largest Congregational Church among the colored people in the United States. Its program contemplates in its scope religious education, spiritual culture and social service. Dr. Henry H. Proctor, who established the First Congregational Church of Atlanta, Ga., as an institutional center, began his pastorate here Jan. 1, 1920.

WEST AFRICA

The Reverend I. W. Underhill, Jr., and his wife, have sailed for France preparatory to beginning work as advance missionaries of the Presbyterian Church in the Cameroons.

The King and Queen of Belgium are on a tour of the Belgian Congo. They have visited the missions of the Jesuits at Kisantu, and Léopoldville, the Congo capital.

I Mr. Leslie McCarthy has been made Acting Solicitor General of the

The Nazarene Congregational Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hilda J. Evans, Georgia

The Kumasi Trio have gone from the Gold Coast to London to record 72 tunes in the Fanti language.

I Dr. Adeniyi-Jones, one of the African elective members of the Nigerian representative council, and President of the National Democratic Party of Nigeria, is visiting Europe for post-graduate medical work. He complains of the growing monopoly which Syrian traders are gaining in Nigeria.

I Sir Edward Denham, Colonial Secretary of Kenya since 1923 and who saw service before then in Ceylon and Mauritius, has been appointed Governor of Gambia, West Africa.

I S. J. Foster, M. B. E., has been appointed Acting Police Magistrate of Bathurst, Gambia, West Africa. This is the first time for twenty-five years that an African has been appointed to the bench, and it is a sort of answer to the complaint that Africans in the Protectorate have no right of judicial Majowoola A. Abayomi of Lagos, Gold Coast, British West Africa, received the Bachelor's degree in Medicine and Surgery at Edinburgh, in July. He was a dispenser of drugs luring the war; entered Edinburgh University in 1922, and won many distinctions.

I Sir Gordon Guggisberg, formerly Governor of the Gold Coast, British West Africa, has been appointed Governor of British Guiana.

The Barber Steamship Lines, Inc., is to manage the American West Africa Line and take over the business of H. H. Bull and Company. There will be regular sailings from New York and from the Gulf, together with passenger service up and down the African coast.

The native planters of Cocoa on the Gold Coast backed by a Dutch banking group, has established a selling organization in Amsterdam. They have a capital of 600,000 Florins.

LIBERIA

President King of Liberia has appointed James L. Sibley, Educational Adviser to the Republic.

On May 13th a government hospital was opened at Monrovia in the presence of officials of the government and the Diplomatic representatives. The hospital occupies a building of stone and concrete brick in the midst of extensive grounds. It faces the Atlantic Ocean and has broad covered verandas. There are rooms far the medical staff; an operating theatre; dispensary; consulting and reception rooms on the ground floor. Two other floors contain 200 beds in single and double rooms and small wards. There is a maternity ward, isolation (Will you please turn to page 358)

Jessmae, Marion and Kathalice Mims, Louisiana

THE CRISIS