A new treaty has been signed between Italy and Abyssinia. It is said to provide for leasing, for twenty years, to be attractive an area of land near the Port of Assab by Italy to Abyssinia. Also, a motor road to Addis Abeba will be built. If this is true, Abyssinia will thus get a free port at Assab and relations with Italy, broken off by a crushing defeat of the Italians at Adowa in 1896, will be resumed on a friendly basis.

BELGIAN CONGO

The Belgian Socialists, through the Socialists' Banque du Travail, of Ghent, have founded cotton companies in the Congo and in Ruanda-Urundi. In this way the Socialists are going to take "active share in the development of the Belgian Congo". This astonishing step should be watched with in-

ENGLAND

Nana Sir Ofori Atta sailed from England for the Gold Coast, Wednesday, July 18th. He visited Liverpool and was entertained at dinner; went to Manchester, and to Scotland. He especially was interested in various factories and industrial works. He said in one of his speeches: "I think that the ignorance of the Englishmen of the value and importance of these colonies should not be allowed to go on."
