ministers, hearing of the bishop's in- Emory B. Smith is director.

fessor Kelley Miller of Howard Uni- will be discussed. versity, died in Washington, D. C., October 3rd at the age of 31 years. appointed director of Physical Educa- continuation of a study of college ad- ple. tion in the Armstrong Technical High ministration problems as they relate to Henry Dukes, a Negro farmer of Washington, D. C., was barred from mittee of the Board of Trustees, in given him on account of his heroism, the public dining room of the Willard order to relieve the strain on the office has set up one of the finest markets in Hotel because of his color. Fellow of the Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Greenville for the wholesaling and result, organized a luncheon to be served The National Interracial Confer- The Atlanta School of Social in a private dining room of the hotel. ence, which is being sponsored by six- Work, the only institution in Ameri-In the seport of the Prudential teen national organizations, will hold a ca devoted exclusively to the training Bank of Washington, D. C., issued on conference at Washington, D. C., De- of Negroes in social work, has be-October 3th, it was announced that cember 16-19. The subjects of gun its ninth term under the directorthe bank had $437,177 in assets. health, industry, agriculture, housing, ship of Forrester B. Washington. The Isaac Newton Miller, son of Pro- recreation, crime and race relations student body is almost twice as large tion at Howard University was estab- in 1927 because of his brave deeds in fusing compensation.

THE SOUTHEAST

copal convention at the Cathedral in lished recently by the Executive Com- rescuing flood victims, with money tailing of fish.

as last year.

There is an effort on foot to disbar all Negro lawyers in Jackson, Mr. Miller was educated in the pri- The executive committee of the Miss., which practically means all mary and secondary schools of Wash- National Association of Collegiate lawyers in Mississippi, since there are ington and was graduated from How- Deans and Registrars in Negro only a few Negro lawyers in the state ard University with the B. A. degree Schools recently met in Atlanta, Ga., outside of Jackson. Proceedings have in 1919. Following his graduation he for the purpose of completing ar- been filed against five Negro lawyers, took special courses in Physical Educa- rangements for the forthcoming annual and the judge before whom the case tion at Harvard University and was meeting, and in order to plan for the is to be tried is hostile to colored peo-

School of Washington in 1920, which the deans and registrars.

Gainesville, Fla., for eight days drove position he held until his death. I Frank Smith, of Greenville, Miss., his truck in and out of the hurricane A Department of Public Informa- who gained the name of "Flood Hero" area, carrying refugee families and re-

Pupils of the Valena C. Jones School, New Orleans, La., page 414

THE BORDER STATES In Memphis, the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Company has started "shooting" "Hallelujah", a story written and directed by King Vidor. Honey Brown, vivacious dancing star of the Club Harlem, New York City, and > ing in the Ziegfeld production, "Show Boat", will act the leading roles. The picture will be released in a few

Daniel Haynes. who has been appear-of Burlington, N. C., has opened a drug store, and is planning to stand

Mrs. Anna S. Church, pioneer resident of Memphis, Tennessee, and mother of R. R. Church, Jr., died recently at over 70 years of age. Mrs. Church was educated in the primary and secondary schools of Memphis, and at Antioch College, Ohio, from which institution she was graduated. She returned to Memphis, where she taught in the public schools until her

W. A. Robinson, who recently resigned his position as Supervisor of Negro High Schools of North Carolina, is now Principal of the Austin High School, Knoxville, Tenn. The high school has a new building with a large gymnasium, excellent science laboratories and equipment, library, cafeteria, and well equipped school rooms. The teaching staff is made up of men and women from the University of Michigan, University of Indiana, Howard, Fisk, Atlanta, Columbia, and Baker Universities, Hampton, Knoxville, Tennesee A. & T. Colleges, and West Virginia Collegiate Institute.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Dean of Women at Simmons University, died recently at Louisville, Ky.

I Jubilee Day was celebrated at Fisk University on October 6, commemorating the day when the original Jubilee singers set out to raise money for the school. On the eve of Jubilee Day, President and Mrs. Thomas Elsa Jones, impersonating Principal and Mrs. John C. Ogden, gave a suphas accepted the offer of the General lic accountant. Mr. Clayton has the per and reception go to faculty, who impersonated the faculty of 1868. The women came in hoop skirts and the men in black beards.

Insurance Company of Durham, N. Mrs. Irene M. Gaines of Chicago, C., was organized October 17, 1898. Today it has reseources of over $3,- Ill., wife of Harris B. Gaines, Republican candidate for state representative, was recently appointed state central committeewoman for the First Con-York City, recently lectured before gressional district.

I J. B. Clayton, of Atlanta, Ga., who the student body of Bennett College I The Superintendent of the Chicago and Cook County School for Boys, where youths are paroled from court, Honey Brown and Daniel Haynes Burst into the Movies in a Paramount Production.

Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., received a certificate as a certified pub-Education Board to give the college distinction of being the first colored $300,000 toward an endowment, pro- man to win this distinction in the state vided the college raises an equal of Georgia. amount within a period of three years.

The North Carolina Mutual Life Plans are now on foot for the campaign to raise Morehouse's quota.

T Products of Negro farmers in twenty counties of Alabama, as well 000,000 and nearly a quarter million as the work of students in a number policyholders. of the schools, were exhibited at the Miss Jessie R. Fauset of New Alabama State Fair, November 5-12.

has been an accountant for the Stand- on "Pride". National Benefit Company, recently grant him a license, Dr. I. W. Wooten reports that during the past year as ard Life Insurance Company and the Despite the refusal of the city to

THE CRISIS