

Anna except the first child which she might have which child if it lived should be the property of his daughter Anna Ireland, the said Hannah was then about seven years of age, that immediately after this Ceremony Hannah returned to rocking the Cri-ble, that from that time Hannah continued to sleep in the room of Barniclow and wife and to attend to the child which was also done by another girl about the House and that said Hannah when called on performed services for any of the family when not engaged in the service of Barniclow and wife and Nursing the child, that the said Charles Bar-niclow and wife together with their daughter Anna removed from said Ireland about August or September in the same year and took Hannah with them who continued in their use and posses--ion for many years thereafter, and that Anna lived with her parents until she was two years of age and then went to live with her Grand mother and Negro Hannah continued to live with Barni-clow and wife, that after the death of Mr. Barni-clow the Grand mother and child went to live with Barniclow and continued to reside with him for one year, at the end of which time the